300 At Industry Inquiry

Hineman Blames Burgess' Sniping

By EARL RANKIN
Earl J. Hineman, who resigned as police chief of Industry, told an audience of 300 at the meeting of Borough Council Wednesday night he quit because of "picking" by Burgess Harry Davis.
But the public airing of the resignation of the veteran police executive indicated neither the chief nor the Burgess clearly understood the duties of the position because Council never got around to setting up regulations.

THE CROWD appeared in defense of the ex-chief at the special business meeting to discuss the reasons for his resignation Aug. 3. Petitions had been circulated for signatures of those planning to attend.

Though several of those who packed the Industry fire station were heard, the principal spokesman for the crowd was W. B. MacBride, a chief engineer at the St. Joseph Lead Co. near Monaca.

The meeting was orderly, under the direction of Calvin Dunlap, Council president, and the only expressions were periods of applause after certain statements.

Hineman's resignation, it was indicated, was due in part through misunderstandings of his job by himself and the Burgess.

Dunlap said Council had not been able to get around to setting up definite duties and regulations for police since it has been busy with other problems of the new borough government which became effective in January.

IN JANUARY Hineman had asked permission to resign but said he would stay until Council found a successor.

Hineman said last night that he resigned over constant picking at him by the Burgess. Several points of supposed difference between the two concerned the pushing of stalled cars by the police cruiser, rushing a woman and her newly born child to City Hospital in the cruiser, the making of reports or notes concerning when Hineman would be on or off duty, and investigation of an escaped mental patient who might have been a prowler.

MacBride had with him a large list of questions which were asked of Hineman first and then Burgess Davis to clarify the points.

Concerning the pushing of cars, Davis said he didn't remember questioning Hineman on that but the matter was brought to his attention during discussion in Council. Davis said he thought there was nothing wrong in pushing cars in an emergency.

CONCERNING the woman and her baby, Hineman said he received a call about 6 one morning that she was in distress, about to have a baby, and her husband was not at home.

Hineman said he got there as quickly as possible and found the baby had arrived and was on the floor. He put her other children to bed, wrapped the infant in a table cloth and took them to the hospital.

He said later that Davis complained that he should not have used the police car as an ambulance.

Davis said later, when questioned, that he believes an ambulance could have done the job as well and that the county could have paid for the trip.

HE SAID Hineman could have called for an ambulance to meet him.

'Character Assassination' Underwood Attacks Crime Commission At Meeting

CHARLESTON (AP) — Gov. Underwood burst angrily into a meeting of the West Virginia Crime Commission today and accused the group of "character assassination."

He said that in testimony before the commission yesterday, his family, himself and his administration were maligned. The Republican governor also said the commission was operating as a political adjunct of the Democratic campaign.

Underwood, flanked by state Police Supt. Hazen H. Fair and State Adj. Gen. William E. Blake, stormed into the room while the commission was hearing testimony by Greenbrier County Deputy Sheriff J. P. May.

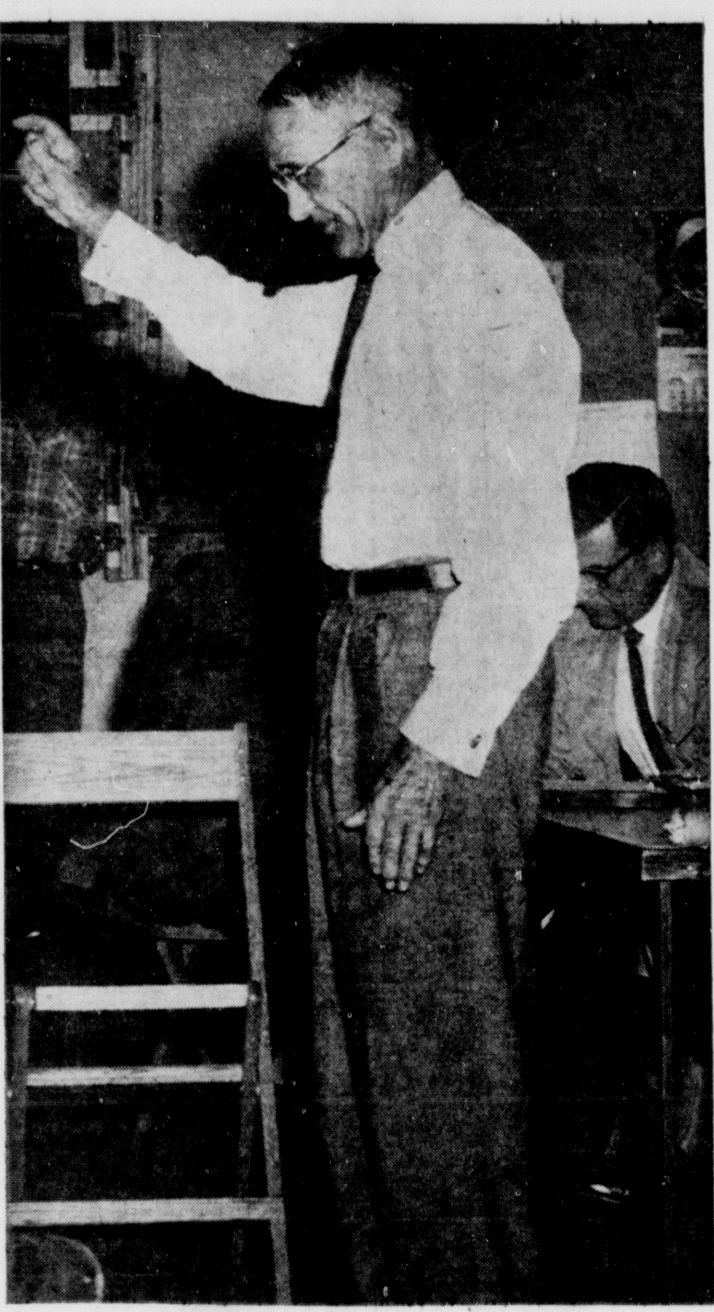

The governor said that he wanted to make a statement. Without waiting for consent, he went ahead, his voice quivering with anger. He apparently spoke from rough notes.

In testimony Wednesday, former State Police Maj. Basil E. Wright testified that Gov. Underwood said to him about two years ago:

"I know where we can get $1,500 and we might as well take it or someone else will."

Wright said Underwood made the statement sometime in 1958. Wright since has retired from the State Police. His post was second-in-command.

The comment stemmed from a

Nixon Plugs Rights Plan In Carolina Talk

Backs Sit-In Acts, Urges Religion Be Kept Out Of Politics

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon has kicked off his vote quest in the racial-minded South with an espousal of civil rights, an endorsement of sit-in demonstrations and a plea to keep religion out of politics.

The Republican presidential nominee surprised a capacity crowd in the Municipal Coliseum here Wednesday night by speaking out on civil rights. He said his position on that subject is the same in the South as it is in the North, the East and the West.

He said he stands on the GOP platform as "an honest program that will produce progress" in the area of civil rights and denounced the Democratic platform as one that promises "far more than they can produce."

Nixon tossed his civil rights views in near the end of a formal address to an enthusiastic crowd estimated at more than 12,000.

He was applauded repeatedly as he expounded his position on other topics and called for disregard of party labels. The ardor of his audience dwindled noticeably as he called for "progress" in promoting civil rights. But he won more applause when he added "I recognize that law alone is not the answer" to the civil rights problem.

His audience included a number of Negroes.

In his public address, Nixon did not refer to sit-in demonstrations or to the issue of religion, but centered on what he said were basic differences between the two major parties on domestic and foreign policies.

These differences, he said, bring the Republican party more in line with the principles of Jefferson, Jackson and Wilson and justify the departure from Democratic ranks of Southerners who, he said, have been deserted by the Democratic party.

At an earlier news conference, Nixon said he supported the objectives of sit-in demonstrations which students started here early this year and which spread to other states.

Asked at this televised news conference whether religion would be a major issue in the campaign, Nixon said he hoped it would not. His Democratic opponent, Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, is a Roman Catholic.

"Religion is not a proper issue," Nixon said. "The way I am going to deal with the religion issue is to talk always about other issues and not about that."

British Defector Seen Attending Powers Trial

Burgess, a former British Foreign Office official, reportedly has been seen sitting among the spectators dressed in a grey tweed coat and flannel slacks.

2 Chief Cuts In Wage Bill Voted Down

Senate To Decide How Many Workers Should Be Covered

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rejecting two major cuts in coverage, the Senate set out today to decide how many new workers should be brought under the minimum wage bill.

The measure, sponsored by Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, the Democratic presidential nominee, remained intact after a week of debate and two days of voting. It would raise the minimum wage from $1 to $1.25 an hour in three steps, and extend the coverage to almost five million additional workers, mostly in retail stores, hotels and restaurants.

But numerous other amendments remained to be voted on under a debate limitation agreement which could bring final action by tonight.

The Senate rejected Wednesday an amendment by Sen. Spessard L. Holland (D-Fla.) which would have exempted all retail establishments and added only about 230,000 workers to the wage-hour law's coverage. The vote was 56-39.

Then a similar 54-39 vote defeated a Republican substitute measure offered by Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois. It would have increased the minimum wage to $1.15 an hour, and extended limited coverage to between 1,800,000 and two million new workers.

Some of today's votes were likely to be closer than the initial roll calls. Backers of the Kennedy measure were not certain they could defeat one amendment advanced by Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney (D-Okla.) which would make a relatively mild cut in the bill's coverage provisions.

Negotiations on the Democratic side still were under way when the Senate quit Wednesday night. It was possible a compromise on the new coverage would be worked out.

Hancock Man Dies In Crash

Weirton Steel Aide, Companion Killed

NEW CUMBERLAND — Glen W. Pearce, 43, of New Cumberland, and Lamar George Heine, 48, of Allen Park, Mich., were killed Wednesday when their car was wrecked in a collision on Highway 71, four miles south of Fayette, Mo.

The car, believed to have been rented in Kansas City, was driven by Mr. Pearce. It collided with the side of a tractor trailer truck driven by Donald Eugene Plunkett of Peculiar, Mo.

Mr. Pearce died in the wreckage. Mr. Heine lived a short time after reaching a hospital at St. Joseph, Mo.

Missouri State highway troopers identified Mr. Pearce as a representative of the Weirton Steel Co. and Mr. Heine as a representative of the Strian Steel Corp. of Allen Park.

Mr. Pearce was on a business trip. He was a supervisory inspector in the metallurgical department of Weirton Steel and had been employed by the company since June 24, 1955.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Louise Pearce at the home on Ridge Ave.; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pearce, formerly of New Cumberland, now of San Antonio, Tex.; a son, Jeffrey Pearce at home, a daughter, Debora Pearce at home; and two sisters, Mrs. Donna Faucetta of San Antonio, Tex., and Mrs. George Skofield of Brunswick, Maine.

Spy Trial In Second Day

Powers' Russian Attorney 'Hopes' Court Is Lenient

MOSCOW (AP) — Francis Gary Powers' Russian defense attorney expressed hope today the Soviet military court trying the American U2 pilot will be lenient with him.

The attorney, Mikhail I. Griniov, made the comment as the trial ended its second day with testimony of Soviet experts who attacked Powers' contention that he was only a pilot acting under orders and not a true spy.

Griniov told Powers' family he based his hope for leniency on the pilot's behavior during his trial, together with his expressed regret and repentance over the May 1 flight that landed him in Russian hands, 1,200 miles inside the Soviet Union.

Griniov is a court-appointed attorney, and the informal view he expressed could reflect official Soviet thinking.

The Moscow radio was telling its listeners today that Powers shows signs of true repentance, and "this makes a clear distinction between him and those who sent him."

The U2 pilot completed his own testimony in 80 minutes on the stand today. He reiterated that he was sorry he made the May Day U2 flight. He told his Soviet judges he did not think at the time that the flight might torpedo the Paris summit conference or provoke a military conflict.

It is the Soviet view that the Powers flight torpedoed the summit, while the United States contends that Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's reaction to the flight, including insistence that President Eisenhower apologize, was responsible for breaking up the May 16 meeting in Paris.

The second day's session ended at 5:40 p.m.

The trial resumes Friday with prospects that it will be completed before nightfall.

In questioning today Lt. Gen. Victor Borisoglebsky, chairman of the three-judge military court, brought from Powers the comment that he thought he had done the United States a disservice by the U2 flight.

State Police Aid Deputies Hunting Pair

Escapes Stole Auto, And Believed Headed Toward Steubenville

CADIZ, Ohio (AP) — Law officers were following a cold trail today in the hunt for Gordon (Spunky) Firman and the companion he freed from Coshocton County jail Wednesday night.

State patrolmen and deputies from Harrison, Jefferson (Steubenville) and Tuscarawas counties (New Philadelphia) combed this area last night after Firman and Robert Johnson disappeared into a woods east of here.

This morning they discovered that a green 1950 Chevrolet had been stolen in that area. They assumed the fugitives had taken the car and were headed toward Steubenville.

The search for the fugitive extended into Harrison County after two men in a black pickup truck stopped at the City Auto Co. in the Tuscarawas County village of Uhrichsville, and two men, both armed with revolvers, took $180 from the attendant and a customer.

Officials said the attendant, Carl Cox, and the customer, J. R. Dickerson, identified one of the men as Firman's companion, Johnson, 22. They said the men jumped back in the truck and drove east on U.S. 250.

A short time later, Harrison County deputies received a call that the pickup truck had overturned on a county road just east of Cadiz, and that two men ran into the nearby woods.

Women Hospitalized As Result Of Crash At Fredericktown

Two young East Liverpool women, en route home from swimming in Beaver Creek at Fredericktown, were injured when their car and a semi-trailer truck collided Wednesday afternoon at 4:05. Both are confined to City Hospital.

June Wakefield, 21, of 212 Pennsylvania Ave., the driver, is in "fairly good" condition with cuts of the knee and face and bruises of the face, legs and left arm.

Nancy Calhoun, 20, of 1744 Wyoming Ave., a passenger, is in "fair" condition with a possible skull injury and concussion.

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Miss Wakefield, daughter of Mrs. Freda Wakefield, was driving west on South St., Fredericktown, and pulled onto Route 170 to turn south.

Officers said her car went into the path of the northbound rig operated by Joseph Blatt, 41, of Cuyahoga Falls, driving for the Summit Fast Freight Co.

Miss Calhoun, who resides with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Wathey and who is employed at the Potters Saving & Loan Association, remained unconscious this morning.

The front and left side of the 1959 sedan were damaged extensively and the front of the truck was damaged, officers said. A charge of failure to yield the right of way has been filed against the woman driver, according to the patrol.

Man Riding Wellsville Truck Killed In Crash

A Wellsville man was killed and the driver of a truck apparently owned by a Wellsville man received minor injuries when the rig loaded with cattle smashed into a bridge abutment on the Ohio Turnpike early today.

The victim of the crash was Conrad Stephens, 25, of Wellsville R. D. 2 while Lawrence Casto, 25, driver, was treated for his injuries and released.

Chester Again Turned Down On Fund Aid

Council Told Sewage Plant Not Placed On Federal Schedule

Chester's proposed sewage plant project has failed to obtain a priority on the federal aid program for this year, Council was informed Wednesday night.

A letter from the West Virginia Water Resources Commission at Charleston advised city officials the Chester project was not placed on the schedule for which $867,675 in federal funds were authorized for assistance in financing program to curb stream pollution in the state.

The failure to earn a priority was the second for the city — last year the application was not submitted in time.

This year, the failure was apparently due to the city's plans which the commission indicated were not up-to-date and because Chester is not presently ready to start work immediately upon the project.

The commission letter advised: "We urge you to review your sewerage program at this time and take what ever steps are necessary to place your city in a position where it can proceed immediately upon receiving a grant-in-aid in the future under the program."

"The commission will no longer give full credit in the point system determination, for final plans which are suspected of being out-of-date and in need of revision."

Chester's sewage plant system was surveyed and plans prepared by A. R. Todd Associates of Wheeling over six years ago. The city has authorized no immediate funds for the project, pending action on federal aid.

However, sewage rates have been established on the basis of 110 per cent of water bills, and are to be collected for the first time in October — if final approval is given by the Public Service Commission.

However, ex-city solicitor William Conklin did not file application for PSC approval, and Mrs. Ruth Cox Turner, present city

Man Given 10 Days In Jail For Numbers

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today slapped a 10-day jail term on a laundry truck driver who admitted possession of "numbers" slips.

The jail term was handed Dewey Morris of R. D. 2, along with a fine of $350 and costs, when he pleaded guilty to the affidavit filed by Patrolman W. E. McDaniel.

Morris was arrested Tuesday morning on Ohio Ave. just after Judge Chertoff had issued a stern edict against "numbers" writing following hearings on similar charges for a West End mother and a Baum St. man.

Morris was the first to be given a jail term under a new city ordinance enacted more than a year ago making possession of such slips an offense. The ordinance provides a maximum penalty of $500 and 6 months in jail.

Before firing Mrs. Peggy Stockdale of W. 8th St. $350 and costs and handing her a suspended 10-day jail term. Judge Chertoff declared Tuesday:

"I want to serve notice that we do not want any writers, pickup men or operators of this 'numbers' business. We don't want you in town!"

At the time, he also commented, "Apparently the only way to stop it is to make the cost so high it won't be worthwhile."

Harry R. (Nig) Johnston of Baum St., who also appeared before Judge Chertoff Tuesday for a hearing, is scheduled to be sentenced Friday in Municipal Court.

Johnston also pleaded guilty to the possession charge, but Atty. Donald E. Smith claimed Johnston was suffering from tuberculosis and asked for a physical examination.

Judge Chertoff then delayed sentencing to await the outcome of the tests.

One Head, Many Hearts

Cabbage Is A Puzzler

Friends of James Raines, 807 Washington St., Wellsville, are puzzled and wide-eyed over an unusual cabbage plant grown in his backyard garden.

Normal in appearance from the outside, the cabbage head has a freakish inside core instead of the usual tender leaves. The center is chock full of hearts which Raines believes is a rarity.

Raines holds the cabbage head cut in half to expose the clusters of small hearts. The plant grew normally and was of average size. The head contained approximately 25 hearts instead of the usual one or two, Raines points out.

Unbelieving friends persuaded Raines to exhibit the cabbage head to the public and the Wellsville man agrees that the plant is unusual. "I grew up on a farm in Elkins, W. Va., and I never heard of a cabbage plant like this one," he said.

Raines is keeping the plant under refrigeration and plans to offer it to Ripley's "Believe It Or Not" newspaper feature.

Area Driver Hurt As Deer Rams Into Car

A Weirton woman driver was treated Wednesday at City Hospital after the head of a buck deer crashed through her windshield, breaking her glasses.

Mrs. Lena Catigani, 54, of Circle Dr., Weirton, suffered small cuts of the hands, left arm, forehead and left cheek. The accident occurred on West Virginia Route 66, about 500 feet north of the Arroyo Sand & Gravel Co.

The buck darted into the driver's side of the 1959 small car and its head crashed through the windshield, throwing glass into Mrs. Catigani's face.

Her glasses were broken and she was without vision. Her husband, Augusto, a passenger, grabbed the wheel and guided the car about 300 feet and off the road, preventing a more serious accident. There was about $300 damage to the car.

Temperature To Mount With Possible 90 Seen

A possible high temperature of 90 degrees was forecast for today with the hotter weather to continue through Friday.

The week has been marked with pleasant sunny days and cool nights for comfortable sleeping but the warmup may see a range of 64 to 68 tonight. The day's range will be 85 to 90.

Temperature to mount... Wednesday's high was a warm 86 degrees, recorded at Dam 8 at Newell between 4 and 5 yesterday afternoon. The overnight low was a mild 62.

With fair skies expected tonight, residents may get another glimpse of the Echo satellite, due at 10:47 in one of its several passes through the skies before dawn Friday.

The balloon arrived nearly on time Wednesday night, appearing in the south at 9:13 and remaining visible for over 10 minutes.

Warns Of U.S. Attack

HAVANA (AP) — Jacques Duclos, one of France's top Communists warned Wednesday night that the United States' ire over nationalization of American property by Fidel Castro might touch off a U.S. military attack on Cuba.

got away from deputies who fired at him in a stolen truck Aug. 7. Wednesday night burst in with a gun drawn on Coshocton County Deputy Sheriff Owen Meredith at the jail. He ordered Meredith to release Johnson, one of three men who escaped with Firman last month but was recaptured when the stolen truck wrecked.

Meredith said he obeyed Firman and let Johnson out of his second floor cell. The pair then fled in a waiting car.

At about the same time, Hamilton Police Sgt. Frank Williams signed warrants charging the 21-year-old fugitive with breaking and entering and kidnapping for another escape Tuesday night.

Fairfield County officials were searching the area west of Lancaster for a man answering Firman's description, and Pickaway County authorities were warned that he might be headed in their direction.

The alleged kidnapping incident was first reported in Athens County Tuesday night when officers stopped a car near Nelsonville. In it were four teen-agers from Hamilton who told of being forced to accompany Firman. An occupant of the car believed to be Firman fled into the brush before officers could capture him. Another passenger was said to be a Lebanon man whose car Firman had taken.

While authorities were searching that area, Mrs. Paul Boggs, a 55-year old housewife of Royalton, 12 miles west of Lancaster, said that a man choked her Wednesday when she refused to give him the food he asked for.

Fairfield County deputies said the man fled in a truck which generally matched the description of a 1960 model pickup truck taken from a Nelsonville garage during the night. Mrs. Boggs, after viewing a picture of Firman, said he was the man who choked her.

And at the same time, there were reports that a man looking like Firman was driving into Pickaway County.

In Circleville, the four Hamilton teen-agers who said they were abducted by Firman were released after being held by Pickaway County authorities for questioning in connection with two burglaries allegedly perpetrated by Firman while holding them hostage.

The youths, Jerry Utsler, 16; Gary Cozad, 19; Lloyd Doughty, 17, and Leroy Dges, 17, along with Donald Ray Center of Morrow, were seized by Firman Tuesday following a chase through part of the downtown Hamilton area in a stolen automobile. That chase ended when the car in which Firman and Bernard Miner, 22, of Lima, were riding hit a parked vehicle. Miner was apprehended a few minutes later but Firman escaped.

The Utsler youth told police that he returned home about 1:30 p.m. Tuesday to find Firman at the house with a loaded pistol. Officers said the Utsler residence had been broken into and a jacket, trousers, pair of boots and other articles were taken. Firman had lost a shoe as he fled from the wrecked car in the Hamilton chase.

Utsler said Firman made him call Cozad to get a get-away car. Firman held Cozad hostage when he came to the house, and when Doughty and Dges came over to the house later, Firman also grabbed them.

The fugitive then forced the boys at gunpoint to leave the home and to get into Cozad's car with him. They drove to Morrow where they developed car trouble and were forced to accompany Firman on a round of teen-age places in that community in search of another car. Firman then commandeered Center's car at gunpoint and forced Center and the four youths to drive with him to Nelsonville.

When they reached Nelsonville, Utsler said Firman forced him to accompany him when he broke into a service station. Another hostage was forced to accompany the fugitive in another break-in.

The five were freed when the car was wrecked while being pursued by officers on Ohio 33 two miles west of Nelsonville.

Authorities say that Spunky Firman might very well be free today if he had not made the original jail escape last month. He had been charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor, but the boy's mother reportedly had decided not to press charges.

However, Firman has a long record of delinquency and such crimes as burglary and larceny.

Francis Powers Did His Job

Nothing the Russian trial of Francis Gary Powers can bring out about him or against him will alter the central fact in his situation.

He did his job. An accidental circumstance caused him to fall into the hands of the authorities of the Soviet Union at the exact moment when they needed an excuse to exorcise the United States.

The only question in the trial is whether the authorities will take out their frenzy on the pilot of the reconnaissance plane that came down on their territory last May 1.

Powers has admitted everything necessary to confirm the charge he was flying the plane. He has admitted he was spying. But there was nothing furtive about it. His plane had been tracked by radar, as other planes like his had been tracked. The Russians knew as much about these planes as the United States has known about the Soviet planes that have flown over U.S. territory and the Soviet ships that have been carrying on intelligence missions off U.S. coastlines.

THE ONLY SHOCKING THING that could have been revealed about the U-2 planes would have been an admission by the U.S. government that its designers had perfected them and they hadn't been used lest some accident cause one to fall into Russian hands, perhaps with a bonus of a live pilot. There are many loose ends about the Powers case to be wrapped up. Even the U.S. government knows little more about what has gone on than its own citizens know. The central area of mystery is how the pilot and the plane happened to have come down on Russian soil. Until that is cleared up, conjecture is blind.

But in the meantime, that central fact remains. The United States had planes and pilots that could carry on successfully for four years reconnaissance flights over Russian territory to offset the endless spying the Russians carry on in the United States.

PILOT POWERS was well paid for his work—$2,500 a month. He had excellent equipment. What he did was a credit to the knowledge of his country and its government. There was no question of ethics; there can be no question of ethics in a contest for survival against the Soviet Union, which despises all ethics.

If all the Russians hope to get out of the Powers trial is a blast against the United States for keeping a watchful eye on them, they are wasting their effort.

There isn't a country on earth that isn't keeping a watchful eye on the Russians, for the very good reason they are the only military power that needs watching.

Ohio Has A Tribal Image, Too

Even the New York Roosevelts in their best days never matched the tribal image being presented by the Massachusetts Kennedys. The Kennedys' mutual interest and helpfulness will be dramatized as the presidential campaign of the family's "favorite son," John Fitzgerald Kennedy, progresses.

It will then be known by one and all that two of the senator's brothers are part and parcel of his political team; that his sisters are devoted to his cause; that his mother and his in-laws are full-fledged members of his campaign organization. This is the tribal image doubled and redoubled.

Here in Ohio, it is the Fergusons as much as the Kennedys who will project the tribal image in 1960 campaigning.

Joseph T. Ferguson is the state treasurer. His son, James O. Ferguson, is running for state auditor on the Democratic ticket. Thomas Ferguson, another son, is Joseph T. Ferguson's administrative aide, drawing $14,400 a year compared with his father's $15,000.

Joseph T.'s brother Leo also works in the state treasurer's office. Joseph T.'s sister Elizabeth works for the Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicles.

Then there is Joseph T.'s daughter Joan, who works for her father, too, and Joseph T. Ferguson Jr., who works for the Ohio Highway Department.

James Ferguson — the one running for auditor — was on the state payroll until he took a leave of absence from a State Welfare Department job to run for an elective office. And in Columbus, observers of the family Ferguson surmise that Thomas is getting ready to run for state treasurer two years from now, if his father retires.

That would continue the family arrangement now in prospect that would put one Ferguson in the auditor's office, where he would be responsible for auditing the accounts of another Ferguson in the treasurer's office.

Fortunately, Ohioans have a way out of all this "togetherness." James A. Rhodes, the current state auditor, is making strong bid for re-election on the Republican ticket. The Ferguson family has things pretty well sewed up, but the auditor's office isn't sewed up yet.

Smoke Gets In Your Eyes

What is branded "aerial sewage" in the upper Ohio Valley has drawn another attack. This time the criticism comes in the form of an analysis presented by Consumers Union in the August issue of its magazine, Consumer Reports.

A sampling of the air took place between Nov. 15 and Dec. 20, 1959, a period labeled "more or less typical rather than extreme." Included in the study were Wheeling, Weirton, Steubenville, Moundsville, New Cumberland, New Martinsville, Wellsburg, Bellaire and Martins Ferry.

What can be done to relieve the air pollution? "Persuade or force offenders in the heavily-industrialized region to install protective devices," the magazine suggests.

Conceding that "clean air" is a district problem primarily, the survey, nevertheless, does bring to mind — even at a time of above-average temperatures — the need for some action on a local level.

East Liverpool doesn't have the smoke problem of a steel center, but there are some buildings here which belch smoke to an undesirable degree. Now is the time for them to consider remedial steps. When cold weather arrives it will be too late and their smoke will continue to be part of the "aerial sewage."

Ex-Spy Reveals Polish Deceit

By Victor Riesel

PARIS This is a spy story the tale of Z-II. Or you might sub-title it Poland bites the hand that feeds it, namely the United States. First it must be reported that NATO's intelligence services out in the suburbs some where know that they are being spied on by Z-II, which is Polish Military Intelligence. We ask rhetorically, but bitterly, how do the doblers in western Pennsylvania and West Virginia feel about some of these imports.

YET TO THIS economic injury the Polish government adds the insult of deceitful use of the very same military which arranges deals bringing them tens of millions of hard American dollars.

Z-II has a verbal agreement with this Warsaw Ministry of Foreign Trade which permits the espionage agency to dispatch its staff officers into American and other Western lands disguised as legitimate representatives of the ministry. They are trained as trade experts.

They then wait in a "pool" for assignment abroad. Word comes from Moscow. Z-II alerts the Foreign Trade Ministry. It appoints one of the spies to London or Washington.

And while the spy's companions in the mission arrange for sales here and for our shipments of food and other essentials to Poland, the secret agents steal from us.

Is this truly co-existence?

Powers Trial Anticlimax

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

The trouble with the spy trial of U-2 pilot Francis Gary Powers in Moscow is that it is an anticlimax. Now, even though it's getting world attention, the edge is off.

The climax came in a few wild and woolly days last May when Premier Nikita Khrushchev trapped the State Department into denying and then admitting Powers was on a spy flight, then proceeded to wreck the summit conference and insult President Eisenhower.

By then the major facts of the case were known. Powers himself apparently had told the Russians all about his mission, and the State Department confirmed it. There was little left for him then but to plead guilty.

Thus long before Powers' trial began Wednesday there was no surprise left except one — what kind of sentence the Russians will hand him.

By the time the trial started Powers had become—as he was all along—a very minor figure in the over-all power struggle between the United States and Russia.

The real aim of the Russians in bringing him to trial at all was to try not him but his government. The questions asked him Wednesday, and the answers he gave, made this plain enough.

The Russians so maneuvered the questioning that he appeared not as some sinister figure peering down on Russia from 65,000 feet but a kind of mechanical man who was simply carrying out orders when he crossed the Soviet frontier.

Eisenhower at his news conference Wednesday indignantly rejected the idea that the American government is on trial in Moscow. But such a rejection has nothing to do with the reality of the situation.

Powers himself, under Russian questioning, represented himself as a young man who had no choice but to do what he was told, although he said he had no stomach for spying at all.

Thus the Russians built up their case against the American government for sending Powers over Russia. Powers himself was pictured as a young man from a poor background who happened to land a well-paying job: $30,000 a year.

The Moscow radio was depicting him as a tool of the U. S. moneyed interests.

In the very course of trying Powers the Russians, besides making anti-American propaganda world-wide, were also trying to create good propaganda for themselves by the way they handled the trial.

Preston Grover, Associated Press reporter covering the trial, said of the way Powers was being handled by the prosecutor: "Spectators who have watched American courts could hardly consider it a brow-beating type."

This is in contrast to the recollection the rest of the world has about Soviet justice, at least as it used to be. The purge trials of fellow Russians by Stalin in the 1930s were among the most infamous in history.

Autocracy On Rise

By David Lawrence

Freedom Missing From New 'Democracies'

It has become the fashion in recent years to extol nationalism and to applaud the agitators for independence in colonial areas. In fact, colonialism has been downgraded as being almost as bad as, if not worse than, imperialism. But the realistic truth is that what has been praised as a movement toward self-determination or self-government is turning out in many countries to be a new form of autocracy and tyrannical dictatorship.

For there is no freedom for the individual in several of the newly created states in southeast Asia and Africa. Nearly every week news dispatches tell of more newspapers suppressed and of individuals who oppose the existing regime being put in jail or forced into exile.

Whether in Ceylon or India or the new republics in the Congo or Laos or Cuba, the first thing a so-called reform regime does is to take away freedom of the press or freedom of speech.

Some of the leaders are brazen about their disregard of democratic institutions. Thus, President Sukarno of Indonesia, according to dispatches this week, has "Moved closer to absolute power in Indonesia."

He recently dismissed the elected legislature and now has appointed a rubber-stamp parliament.

He says to them: "Democracy has not failed in Indonesia, but by continuing our revolution we have brought about the failure of liberal democracy... we do not want fascism. That is why we brought liberalization to an end and replaced it with mutual-help democracy."

WORDS LIKE democracy and liberalism have become meaningless in the parlance of the new group of dictators.

There is only one word that should count, and that's freedom — which, of course, is promptly suppressed.

Whether in Communist Russia or Communist Cuba, the claim is always made that democracy prevails. But there is no such thing as free elections—the true test of democracy.

As for the newspapers, they are almost entirely under the thumb of the ruling dictatorship.

In Ceylon, for instance, the new autocracy has taken over virtually all the newspapers.

One of the first things done, moreover, by the new Congo Republic, formerly the Belgian Congo, was to expel the French and Belgian news agencies.

The International Press Institute in Zurich, Switzerland, has just sent a message of protest to the Congo minister of information.

Its full text follows: "The International Press Institute expresses its deep concern at the threats uttered by the minister of information of the Congo against local newspapers which have dared to criticize the government and against foreign correspondents.

"With regard to the local press, these threats have found expression in searches at the headquarters of indigenous newspapers and in the arrest of the chief editor of one of them.

"With regard to the foreign press, these threats have found expression in the closing of the offices of the Agence France Presse and of the Belga Agency in the Congo. The institute deplores these threats and measures which, together, constitute a grave threat to freedom of information."

But none of these protests seems to make much of an impression even in the United States. For the Senate Foreign Relations Committee has just approved an aid fund of 100 million dollars for the new Congo government.

Why shouldn't the Congolese newspapers can be carried on with impunity, since the Congress of the United States appears to be ready to finance a dictatorship or tyrannical regime just the same, so long as it calls itself a democracy?

THE COMMUNIST agents, to be sure, who stealthily steer the new democracies in their governmental operations are the first to urge that freedom of the press be abolished and a governmental press substituted.

Already the propaganda drive is on to destroy the independence of the Union of South Africa. Sir De Villiers Graaff, leader of the opposition party there, has warned that the East-West cold war could result in "military adventures" in Africa.

He has just said to his party's congress:

"Communist aspirations in the Congo will revive actively from the moment the United Nations forces withdraw, and even while they are there communist influence will seek to build itself up in anticipation of future success."

"A vast African bloc is being established to the north of us and in that bloc the Communists are active. Many of the states forming that bloc are fluid and fomenting."

"They lack responsible leaders and responsible public opinion. Some are overpopulated and economically feeble."

"They form an area of conflict between East and West capable of arming itself and engaging in military adventures. Many of them make no effort to disguise their hostility to white states in Africa."

The question might well be asked whether all persons—white or brown or black or yellow—weren't really far better off under so-called colonial rule by the Dutch, the French and the British, respectively, than they are today under untrained, uneducated, irresponsible leaders who have seized the reins of government in the so-called independent countries.

Purely Personal

There is only one safe rule about politicians whose public statements contradict each other: We heard you the first time; we aren't interested in the revised version.

If I had anything to do with professional baseball and football, I'd slap down any player or manager who made snide remarks about his co-workers so hard he would be glad to get back into whatever lowly occupation he pursued before he took on the obligation to behave like a professional sportsman.

For those who win at the sound of "juvenile delinquents," names used elsewhere as "Teddy boys" in Britain, "Halbstarke" (half-matured) in Germany, "Blousons noirs" (black jackets) in France, "raggare" (girl chasers) in Sweden, "hooligans" in Poland and Russia, "bodies and Widges" in Australia, "Totsis" (ducktails) in South Africa, "mambo" in Japan and "Liu-mang" and "Tai-pu" in Taiwan.

I am abashed at the awkwardness of an old-fashioned ponderous car I am driving temporarily while my own little nubile jalopy is off on a vacation jaunt. No wonder the accident rate used to be so much higher per 100,000 passenger miles than it is now.

Celebrity flaunting by political parties offends me. I do not give two whoops in a voting booth what Dolly Darling and Peter Precious of the moving pictures think about politics.

I, too, was beginning to wonder about the extraordinary fuss over the Congo until I remembered it includes among its natural assets one of the world's juiciest sources of uranium.

It is no comfort at my time of life to realize that with a high aptitude for yard maintenance I might have been a successful landscape gardener with my own fleet of lawnmowers and a loyal little band of skilled operators.

Appropos of some of the getups you see in the summertime, it is not true that the basis of good dress, like the basis of good manners is consideration for others, as opposed to personal convenience?

I have heard all kinds of reasons for the voting edge of Democrats over Republicans in the two-party sections of the United States, but the one that makes most sense to me is the Democratic policy of relying on women for success while Republicans treat women as auxiliaries.

It's not my headache, but I feel sympathetic with the Guggenheim Art Museum people about the Frank Lloyd Wright building that has become a prime New York tourist attraction, although it is poorly adapted to its purpose as a picture gallery. It always was Wright's idea that pictures were not an art form in themselves but only ornamentation for buildings—and he proved it by building a monument to his ego in a city that rejected his ideas about architecture.

Hubert Humphrey could be 10 times as important as I think he is in the U.S. Senate and he still would remind me of Donald Duck when he talks.

Every time I think of it, I chuckle—Vance Packard's "Status Seekers," where he describes two couples going somewhere in a car. Middle class couples divide with two men in front, two women in back; upper class couples with one husband and wife in front, the other in back; upper-upper class couples with one husband and the other man's wife in front, the other husband and the other wife in back.

New Car Sales Up

Increase Shown In Area Payrolls

Industrial payrolls in 11 area factories were nearly 9 per cent higher in the first 7 months this year than they were in a comparable 1959 period despite a decrease in the average employment, the monthly business review of the Chamber of Commerce showed today.

The Chamber's report also showed a whopping increase of 21 per cent in the sale of new cars so far this year and a decrease of nearly 12 per cent in city relief cases.

GAINS ALSO were reflected in 6 of the 11 other indices used in compiling the report.

Business conditions last month showed a slight improvement over July 1959, with increases in industrial payrolls, employment and sales tax and postal receipts.

However, the only gain in July over June was in the average number of workers employed.

July's payroll of $1,248,300 was a drop of 7.2 per cent from June's high of $1,344,753. However, the Chamber explained vacation pay was included in the June totals.

The July total is a gain of 3.3 per cent over July 1959, and the total payroll of $8,401,314 is a boost of 8.7 per cent above the $7,730,281 paid in a comparable period in 1959.

THE AVERAGE employment in the 11 factories in July was 4,064, an increase of 4.3 per cent over June's average of 3,896, and a boost of 1.9 per cent over the same month last year.

However, the average number employed so far this year is 3,855, down 7.1 per cent from the 1959 average of 4,149.

Sales tax receipts, regarded as a barometer of retail business, totaled $43,916 in July, exclusive of the tax paid on autos, a decrease of 43.9 per cent from June's $78,234.

However, the Chamber explained June receipts were high because it marked the last report for the fiscal year.

Sales tax receipts showed a slight gain of 1.1 per cent over the same month last year. The total receipts of $319,741 so far this year represent a drop of 18 1/2 per cent from 1959's total of $392,429.

POSTAL receipts totaled $17,468 in July, a decrease of 9.6 per cent from June's $19,331 but a 2 per cent boost over July a year ago. For the year, receipts are down 0.7 of a per cent from $138,040 in 1959 to $137,102 this year.

Both bank clearings and debits showed gains over June, over July of last year and for the year to date.

Bank clearings were up 4.9 per cent from $3,562,198 in June to $3,736,069 last month and an increase of 5.2 per cent over July 1959. The total clearings of $23,528,407 are up 0.9 per cent over $23,308,521 in 1959.

Debits showed an increase of 5 1/2 per cent from June's $24,388,440 to $25,737,996 last month and are 3.7 per cent ahead of the previous July. The total for the year is $48,191,111 compared to $46,377,068, an increase of 3.9 per cent.

THE BIGGEST decreases were registered in inbound railroad carloadings with July's 230 cars being a drop of 20.4 per cent from June's 289 and a decrease of 37.2 per cent from July of 1959. The total for the year so far, 1,793, is a drop from 2,277 last year, a decline of 21.3 per cent.

Outbound railroad carloadings jumped 2 per cent from 203 in June to 207 last month. However, outbound carloadings last month were 12.7 per cent less than in July a year ago. The total to date of 2,142 is a gain of 4.9 per cent over the 2,042 in 1959.

The number of towboats traveling the Ohio River last month and the total tonnage hauled are down from the June figures and from a year ago. However, for the year, the number of towboats increased but the total tonnage shows a sizeable drop.

A DECLINE of 10.9 per cent in the number of towboats up and down the Ohio is shown in June's figure of 567 compared to 505 last month. It's a decrease also of 1.2 per cent from the number reported a year ago.

The 3,346 towboats registered this year is an increase of 19.4 per cent over 1959's total of 2,803. Total tonnage dropped from 1,300,100 in June to 1,082,200 in July, a decrease of 16.8 per cent, and a drop of 7 1/2 per cent from July 1959. The total for the year to date is 8,938,800 tons, compared to 10,525,405 for the first seven months in 1959, a decline of 15.1 per cent.

New passenger car sales in the county last month totaled 232, a drop of 23.6 per cent from the 423 sold in June and 7.7 per cent less than the number sold in July 1959.

HOWEVER, the sales bring the total to 2,532 for the year so far compared to 2,092 for 1959, a boost of 21 per cent.

Sale of other vehicles climbed by 44.8 per cent from 67 in June to 97 last month. However, sales lagged 8 1/2 per cent behind those recorded in July 1959.

Total sales for the year so far are 652, compared to 600 at that time last year, an increase of 8.7 per cent.

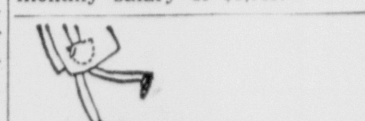

Used car sales dropped to 700 last month, a decrease of 28.6 per cent from June's 980, and 12 1/2 per cent less than were sold in July 1959. For the year so far, the used car sales of 6,623 are 4 1/2 per cent higher than 1959's 6,336.

RECEIPTS from city parking meters hit $4,868 last month, a decline of 13.6 per cent from June's total of $5,636. The figure also is 14.1 per cent lower than that of July 1959.

The meter revenue this year of $32,044 is 4.1 per cent lower than the $33,429 collected in seven months last year.

City relief cases showed a gain of 4 1/2 per cent last month, climbing from an average of 67 in June to 70. However, the monthly average this year has been 74, a decrease of 11.9 per cent from the average of 84 a month last year.

his arms folded and little change of expression, to testimony of Soviet investigators on technical aspects of his plane's equipment and purpose. They charged the flight was planned, premeditated and aggressive.

The flier challenged two of the experts.

He disputed the testimony of Lt. Col. Yuri Tyufilin that he flew a plane without American national identification marks.

Powers insisted it was quite possible his plane once had markings and that they might have been covered over by paint.

"I always saw it with identification marks," he said.

The Russian expert was obliged to agree that marks might have been painted out, but stood on the findings of the investigators that the U2 never had carried national identification numbers.

This was intended to shake Powers' claim that the plane he flew might have had markings which he did not happen to see when he took off in Pakistan for a high-altitude dash across the Soviet Union.

expert, showed the court an incendiary device and Powers interrupted again.

"I don't have a question, but I would like to make a statement," he said.

He showed from the directions on the box that the incendiary device was intended simply to light a campfire if he was forced down in the wilderness.

Referring to a .22 caliber pistol he was carrying when captured, Powers said:

"The pistol was given to me only for hunting. It is too bad that nobody but me knows that I can't kill a person even to save my own life."

Lt. Col. Nikolai Douev went into great detail describing the pistol, which Powers strapped to his side beneath his flying suit.

Casto's address is listed as 1137 Main St., Wellsville, which also is the address of Joseph Jack DeSarro, a trucking contractor.

The State Highway Patrol said the accident occurred two miles west of the Lorain-Elyria interchange. They said a coroner's investigation would be held to determine the cause of the accident.

All but 3 of the 24 cattle in the truck died in the crash.

4-Car Crash Causes Damages Of $2,350

Drivers escaped injury in a four-car "chain" crash on Route 66 near New Cumberland this morning, but Hancock County sheriff deputies estimated a total of $2,350 damage to the vehicles, including two from East Liverpool. The crash occurred near the intersection of Route 2 about 7:50 a. m. during heavy fog.

The driver's were identified as Richard Camerlin, 24, of New Cumberland R. D. 2; Richard Hall, 46, of 1257 Erie St., and Richard Herron, 44, of Park Blvd., both East Liverpool, and Clyde Buck, 47, of the Campground Rd., Wellsville.

Camerlin's car received about $200 damage, Hall's 1957 sports car was demolished for a $1,500 loss, Herron's damage was $500 and Buck's $150.

They were going over a hill when the first car slowed because of the fog with each then ramming the rear of the others, deputies said.

solicitor, is in Morgantown today and it is not known if she has filed for approval.

The rates will probably not be collected until the PSC acts.

The commission's letter continued, "Under present policy the project must be under construction within 180 days following acceptance of federal aid offer or a hearing will be held in regard to the delay. Planning should be such that your city can proceed with the project when a priority and grant are awarded."

"We will return your application to you at a later date so that it may properly be revised prior to reapplication for 1961."

Discussion was held on the planned construction of a $15,000 retaining wall along the Ohio River at the upper pump station to protect the facility when the pool level rises upon completion of the Stratton Super-dam.

Council is to meet in special session Monday night at 8 to determine how to finance the project for which the city will later be reimbursed by the federal government.

A letter from McGill & Smith, engineers of Bethel, Ohio, who are preparing plans for the wall, suggested the financing action be taken soon.

The firm said its experience shows government reimbursement "is exceptionally prompt," and that the water works sinking fund could be utilized or a short-time loan with the contract as collateral.

The next step will be advertising for bids for the project.

Commenting on the taste of city water in the past week — due to use of copper sulphate to curb algae in the reservoir — Councilman Donald Hissam said little can be done about eliminating the aquatic growth.

Hissam, chairman of the water and sewer committee, said top chemists in the country have been unable to determine an effective means of ending the growth during hot and humid weather. He said the algae is harmless, however, and the water is safe.

Hissam said the reservoir will be cleaned when the weather becomes cooler.

Councilman Cyril Govey, chairman of the street committee, said complaints have been received about residents throwing grass and weeds into the streets, causing sewers to clog.

Councilmen warned a city ordinance prohibits the practice, and violators will be liable to a fine.

Council granted the volunteer firemen use of 4th St. between Carolina Ave. and Indiana Ave. for a public dance, bake sale and refreshment stand Sept. 9. Hissam filed the request for the firemen.

Council approved a motion by Councilman Harry Davis to have the combination of the office safe changed at the City Hall. It was pointed out the combination has become widely known in the past several years.

30,000 Idled At U.S. Steel By RR Strike

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Some 15,000 nonoperating employees struck a shuttle railroad today in a contract dispute, idling five U. S. Steel Corp. mills served by the railroad.

About 30,000 steelworkers were thrown out of work by the strike. Negotiations failed late Wednesday night. No further talks were scheduled.

The striking workers—lower operators, clerks and maintenance men—are represented by the United Steelworkers Union.

About 5,000 other railroad employees were idled because of the strike.

About 15 men are needed on the ground for every one that flies an airplane.

"These trails would shake the cab off an ordinary truck... but not our Chevy"

Few trucks are subjected to the body-racking beatings that are part of a day's work for this Chevrolet Series 60 pulpwood hauler. It's owned by J. E. Fox, North Carolina logging contractor. As Bobby Fox, a partner in the business says, "Loaded with pulpwood, we drive over stumps and potholes you'd think would tear the truck to pieces. These trails would shake the cab off an ordinary truck, but not our Chevy. We can average an extra load a day... make $45 to $50 a day more with this Chevy than we can with the others."

In every weight class these Chevies are doing more work at less expense than trucks have ever done before. Drive one at your Chevrolet dealer's. It's an experience that could pay you big dividends.

"That 6-cylinder engine really performs," says Bobby Fox. "It's got the hugging power we need in the woods and walks right along with a full load on the highway."

24 hours duty, and believed this was too much for any man and hired a part-time policeman to take over one or two days to give the chief a rest.

This apparently resulted in a misunderstanding since Hineman said that he felt that he was on 24 hours call and did not need to leave the information and that it was the part-time officer's responsibility to leave the notes as to when he was on or off.

As for the supposed prowler, Hineman said he was criticized for the cost of bringing the suspect back from Ohio and then not holding him.

Hineman said he had received a call from a woman about a prowler. On the second search around the house he said he heard steps on the road nearby. He got into his car and apprehended the man, about 60, but the woman could not identify him. Hineman said he gave the man a lift down the road as he had no reason to hold him.

Later the man was arrested in Wellsville and returned to Pennsylvania. Then it was discovered the man had been released on probation from the mental institution and had not escaped. He had not been listed as wanted at the time the chief found him.

HE SAID that the next night, he received a call from New Brighton police, describing the man.

Davis said that he had a right to differ with Hineman and thought that Hineman is a "wonderful man" and has done much in the community.

Asked by residents how Hineman might become chief again, Dunlap said Council will not beg him but it is up to him to apply to Council for the job.

One resident, declared out of order, said he thought Davis was too busy with other activities to have time for the borough and that he should resign. This brought applause.

DAVIS SAID after the meeting that he does not intend to resign and will stay on until his two-year term expires "and not one minute more."

A remark was made afterwards that the audience was made up "99 per cent" of Republicans. Democrats are in a majority in the Council.

On the matter of the baby incident, MacBride read a clipping about Pittsburgh police delivering their 25th baby in emergency calls.

Asked about current police protection, the group was told that one of two part-time officers may be reached most of the time and that Midland police will assist if needed.

Industry officers are Marko Ratkovich, at NE. 4-2251, and John Arnold, NE. 4-6386. A third part-time officer is being sought. A full-time applicant may be interviewed Saturday, Allen Craft, police committee chairman, said.

AFTER MOST residents had left about 10 p. m., Council decided that if necessary, a public notice will be made of available officers and their phone numbers.

Councilman James Muns agreed with Dunlap that Council has left Hineman and Davis "out on a limb" by not setting up rules.

Hineman served as police chief six years and before that was a building contractor in the industry area 40 years.

Hineman said he will not apply for chief again under Davis and will return only if Davis resigns and residents petition Council to reinstate him. "Politics have a lot to do with the situation," Hineman said.

Some routine business was taken up by Council later but committee reports of plans for the remainder of the year were tabled until the next meeting Sept. 7.

West Europe Sympathizes With Powers

LONDON (AP) — The courtroom conduct of U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers on the first grueling day of his Moscow trial won him the sympathy and even admiration of many of West Europe's newspapers. They pictured the young American flier as a luckless casualty in the cold war.

Many West European observers also felt the early pattern of the espionage trial confirmed their opinion that the whole thing was a well-staged propaganda show, with U.S. policy rather than Powers as the target of the Soviet prosecutors.

Most newspapers, including many with their own correspondents attending the trial, were convinced there had been no attempt to brainwash Powers.

Britain's Daily Telegraph said Powers was in the unprecedented position of a secret agent who had been acknowledged by his principals.

"Given this fact, and assuming he was right in assisting the court at all, the American pilot was magnificent," the Conservative newspaper said.

All over Western Europe reports of the trial were carried under banners in big type stretching over several columns.

"Powers confessed quietly and with dignity," said the headline of a Copenhagen newspaper.

Another Danish paper described the trial as "a big Soviet propaganda show with a small super-numerary in the leading role."

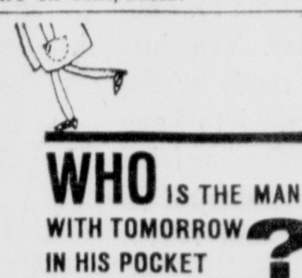

Il Messaggero, Rome's biggest independent morning paper, termed the trial a "sad comedy." Its front-page editorial declared: "The Powers trial is not a legal process. It is a show."

Burning Brush Brings Fire Scare At Chester

Pennsylvania Railroad workers burning brush and weeds along tracks in Chester this morning caused at least one East Liverpool woman to believe a major conflagration was getting out of control.

Chester authorities received a telephone call that there was a "fire" along the river bank, but investigation proved workers were burning 1,000 gallons of fuel oil to burn off green weeds and brush. The workers had water tanks standing by to curb the flames should they get out of control.

Four of the 10 largest industrial corporations in the United States are oil companies.

Forgery Case Action Opens

A lengthy hearing was under way today in Municipal Court for a city man charged with forging his ex-wife's signature to a check mailed to her from the Juvenile Court support division.

Virgil W. Wright, 1839 Dresden Ave., entered a not guilty plea when arraigned before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on the charge filed by Capt. Robert H. Pyle. The principal prosecution witness as the case opened was Walter Knight, photographer and examiner of questionable documents at the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation at London.

Knight testified Wright's signature matched the forged signature on the check in 12 points. There were two discrepancies, he also testified.

He testified the handwriting samples of Wright's ex-wife, Mrs. Christina Gay Wright of Mulberry St., and those of Harris A. Shasteen and Sarah Ann Melvin did not compare with the forged signature.

Capt. Pyle preceded Knight to the stand.

Wright was taken into custody July 26 on the affidavit, charging he did "falsely make, forge and counterfeit the signature" of his ex-wife. The check was cashed June 26 at an East End supermarket.

Asst. Solicitor Richard J. Clark was prosecuting the case while Atty. William Lodge represented Wright.

Park Board Arranges Payments For Builder

A $4,285 note for Robert Finley, Chester contractor, to pay for labor and materials in the construction of the community building at the Chester City Park was signed by the Park Commission Tuesday night.

The commission agreed to pay the note at $50 a month, plus 6 per cent interest, according to Harold Dickey, chairman.

Plans were made for installation of public toilets at the building prior to the start of football games this fall. The next meeting will be Wednesday night.

Effect On Industry Emphasized

Tariff Cut On Foreign Glass Fought

WASHINGTON (Special) — The United States Tariff Commission has been urged to check any further reduction in tariff rates on imported window glass products because of its effect on the glass industry in this country.

The request was made by Robinson F. Barker, general manager of the glass division of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co.

Barker, who estimated that his firm produces about one-third of the sheet glass or window glass products in this country, contended that the foreign imports have cut deeply into production and resulted in unemployment in the industry in this country.

IN HIS OWN firm, Barker stated, there has been a decline of almost 25 per cent in the number of workers in the sheet glass division. He added that he believed the same decline occurred in other glass companies.

Barker and other glass industry leaders are opposing continuance of the current reciprocal tariff cutting program under which the tariff on glass imports is being cut five per cent per year. Now in its third year, the program is scheduled to continue for two more years.

Next week union leaders and city officials from Charleston and Clarksburg, W. Va.; Toledo, Ohio, and other glass producing centers are scheduled to testify before the tariff commission on the same issue.

Contending that the low labor costs in foreign countries enabled their glass companies to sell their products in this country well below domestic prices, Barker declared:

"We do not ask for, nor expect, an embargo — we ask only for a fair opportunity to compete."

BARKER testified that in 1960 foreign imports of sheet glass into this country totaled only 31,700,000 pounds and were equivalent to only 2 1/2 per cent of the domestic production.

In the last decade, Barker said, with tariff rates declining, the imports of window glass soared to 502,600,000 pounds and equalled 31 per cent of the estimated domestic production.

Glass companies in foreign countries have been able to make inroads into the American market chiefly because of the cost advantages they possess over domestic producers.

"This cost advantage," he said, "applies not only to the cost of labor — by far the most important component of total cost — but also to the cost of raw materials."

The glass executive cited some typical labor costs in 1959 — in Japan, excluding fringe benefits, 33 cents an hour; in West Germany and Belgium, including fringe benefits, 69 and 75 cents respectively.

"Our average hourly wage costs in that year were $3.72," Barker said.

Castro Brothers Smash Plot

Sweeping Reorganization Of Cuban Navy Expected

HAVANA (AP)—A sweeping reorganization of the Cuban navy appeared certain today in the wake of reports that the Castro brothers had smashed a naval plot against their regime.

Government silence prevented official confirmation of persistent reports that Castro agents had infiltrated a group of dissident naval officers at the Casa Blanca base across the way from Havana and uncovered a plot to revolt or defect with two of Cuba's three modern frigates.

Armed forces headquarters denied anything was amiss, but informants insisted about 300 men had been arrested on charges of plotting.

Reports that Navy chief Juan Castineira was under arrest were denied officially, but his whereabouts was a mystery.

Havana radio stations said early today that Prime Minister Fidel Castro was visiting army bases in Las Villas Province, in central Cuba. The prime minister went to

Girard Man Posts Bond In Cuban Dope Case

HAVANA (AP)—Harold Fieldman of Girard, Ohio, has posted a $5,000 bond pending trial here on charges of dealing in narcotics with Frank Cammaratta, a gangster, who formerly operated in Detroit and Youngstown, Ohio.

Court officials said Fieldman had been released from jail, but they indicated it was unlikely he would be allowed to leave Cuba until his case is concluded.

Fieldman and Cammaratta, who fled the United States to avoid deportation to his native Italy and later operated a bar in Cuba, were arrested when Cuban officials reportedly found a large cache of cocaine in Cammaratta's apartment.

Cammaratta's bail was set at $20,000. He has been unable to put it up and remains in jail.

2 Held In Burglary

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Police are holding a 32-year-old woman — Miss Betty Jean Hayden of Dayton — and a Dayton man for questioning in the burglary of an Arcanum home. The man is John Martinelli. Police captured Miss Hayden after a hectic chase, in which she climbed out of a second story window of her home, leaped onto a porch, jumped to the ground and fled. Officials finally captured her an hour later as she was climbing out a basement window six blocks from her home. She is accused of a $450 burglary. Police said some of the stolen articles were in her home, and others were found in Martinelli's house.

Police Jail Three Of Negro Gang In Beating Youth

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Police have jailed three members of a gang of Negro boys present at the beating of a whiteboy on charges of felonious assault. Officials said the other members of the gang, numbering 16 to 20 boys, are expected to be questioned or charged.

The victim of the beating was Freddie Tipton, 16, of near Ironton, Ohio. Police said Tipton suffered a shoulder injury, bruises and abrasions and lost two front teeth in the beating which occurred while he was leaving an all-star high school football game in Charleston Saturday night.

Tipton told police the gang jumped him while he walked toward a bus stop. Sgt. Arlie Robinson said the questioning indicated that, before the beating, an auto filled with white boys passed the group of Negroes and the whites had shouted obscene remarks. The Negroes started for the car but it sped away.

Robinson said one of the gang then remarked: "Let's go pick a fight with a white boy."

Tipton was the first one they encountered.

The three arrested, all from Charleston, were John David Smith, 19; Lewis Graham, 18, and a 14-year-old whose name was not released.

Tooth Paste Brand Wins Dental Group's Approval

By ARTHUR J. SNIDER
Observer-Chicago News World Service

CHICAGO — In an unprecedented action, the American Dental Association has recognized a tooth paste as having decay-preventing benefits.

SNIDER

The ADA headquarters officially accepted a fluoride dentifrice discovered by an Indiana University dental scientist and marketed commercially by Procter & Gamble Co. under the name of Crest.

The action is significant not only because the ADA has for decades refused to recognize any toothpaste, but has also implied that the public was wasting money buying it.

ADA educational materials have stressed that the tooth brush is a big preventive weapon and that baking soda or salt water are as effective as any tooth paste or powder.

As one toothpaste after another came along with lavish claims for the long-sought ingredient to curb tooth decay, the ADA promptly cautioned the public against extravagant advertising.

Toothpastes containing chlorophyll, ammonia, penicillin, detergents, germ-killers, sugar-blocking enzymes and others failed to win the much-sought ADA approval.

The official nod given to Crest is expected to have repercussions in a dentifrice market where sales exceed $300 million a year.

The endorsement is a personal victory for a 38-year-old biochemist, Joseph C. Muhler, who began working with stannous fluoride as a substitute for sodium fluoride when a sophomore dental student at Indiana University.

Although the conservative ADA continued to decline acceptance of his assertions, Muhler persisted in his research when a less determined investigator might have become discouraged.

Muhler has assigned his patent to the Indiana University Research Foundation.

Procter & Gamble, headed by Neil McElroy, former secretary of Defense, has paid almost $100,000 in royalties to the foundation.

Under university regulations, Muhler is not allowed to participate in royalties but a university spokesman said he had been taken care of with a substantial increase in salary that puts him in "top level ranks."

He also has been awarded a special title as research professor of basic sciences, a new laboratory and the freedom to work on his chosen projects.

Muhler believes even greater advances in stannous fluoride lie ahead.

In an interview with the Observer-Chicago News Service, he predicted that stannous fluoride applied only once to the teeth by the dentist in matter of seconds, instead of many minutes as now, will confer protection for an indefinite period.

Muhler believes topical application by the dentist will be much more important than the toothpaste and that fluoridated water supplies are still the best and cheapest method of dental decay prevention.

The ADA, in its announcement to the dental profession, also stressed that stannous fluoride tooth paste is an aid but not a cure-all and does not substitute for community fluoridation.

But the decay reduction credited to Crest is marked.

In one test group using the dentifrice "under normal conditions in their homes," there was a 23-per cent reduction, as compared with brushing done with other cleaners.

In another group, where there was supervision of brushing once daily, the reduction was 34 per cent.

Under an ideal setting, where brushing was supervised three times a day, there was a 57 per cent reduction, a figure ranking favorably with 60 per cent reduction in community water studies and 60 per cent in Muhler's topical method.

The ADA has made it clear it was only recognizing Crest and that the acceptance does not apply to any other stannous fluoride dentifrice that may be on the market or might come on later.

Dentists Make History

Brand Of Toothpaste Recognized As Decay Preventive Agent

Stannous Fluoride Used In Product

By RAY BRUNER
Blast Science Editor

The American Dental Association made history today. It officially recognized a toothpaste as an effective decay preventive agent.

This had never been done before by the ADA, which for years had rejected claims of many dentifrice manufacturers, such as "a clean tooth never decays."

The unique destination of being recognized by the ADA goes to "Crest", manufactured by Procter & Gamble Cincinnati.

"Crest", the ADA council on dental therapeutics reported in today's issue of the Journal of the American Dental Association, "has been shown to be an effective anti-carries (decay preventive) dentifrice that can be of significant value when used in a conscientiously applied program of oral hygiene and regular professional care; Crest dentifrice may also be of value as a supplement to public health procedures."

The council emphasized its action applied only to one inredient in the toothpaste—stannous fluoride, a compound of tin and fluorine.

Back of the council's decision are 10 years of clinical studies. There were seven test groups, each matched by "controls."

One group used the dentifrice "under normal conditions in their home." They experienced a 23 per cent reduction in the incidence of tooth decay.

Reduction In Decay

Members of the second brushed their teeth once a day, under supervision, with a 34 per cent reduction. In a third group, with supervised brushing three times daily, there was a 57 per cent reduction in decay.

The council said these experiences emphasized the need for frequent use of the dentifrice, along with a program of "good oral hygiene", to achieve maximum benefits. "Good oral hygiene" would include proper use of the toothbrush, regular attention from a dentist and avoidance of excessive consumption of candy, sweetened soft drinks and other sources of sugar, which cause teeth to rot.

The ADA now recognizes three methods of obtaining benefits from fluorides:

► Fluoridation of community water supplies.

► Systematic application of fluoride solutions by the dentist to the surface of children's teeth.

► Stannous fluoride dentifrice.

Fluoridation, the ADA council stated, is by far the most desirable method of preventing decay, from the standpoint of cost, effectiveness and convenience.

Preliminary studies by the council suggest that a combination of all three methods may be more worthwhile than one alone.

Fluorine, in fluoride compounds, is a "trace element" necessary for adequate construction of our bodies. Teeth that lack fluorine are more susceptible to decay than teeth that contain an adequate amount.

Not all decay, however, is believed due to fluorine deficiency. Also the use of fluoridation decreases in effectiveness as children grow toward maturity.

to keep the fire protection on the west side of the Iowa river.

Dental Group Okays Crest As Decay-Preventive Agent

The American Dental association today officially recognized Crest toothpaste as "an effective decay - preventive agent." Crest is the first dentifrice ever to receive such recognition, the association said in Chicago.

In a statement published in the August 1 issue of The Journal of the American Dental Association, the A.D.A. council on dental therapeutics reported:

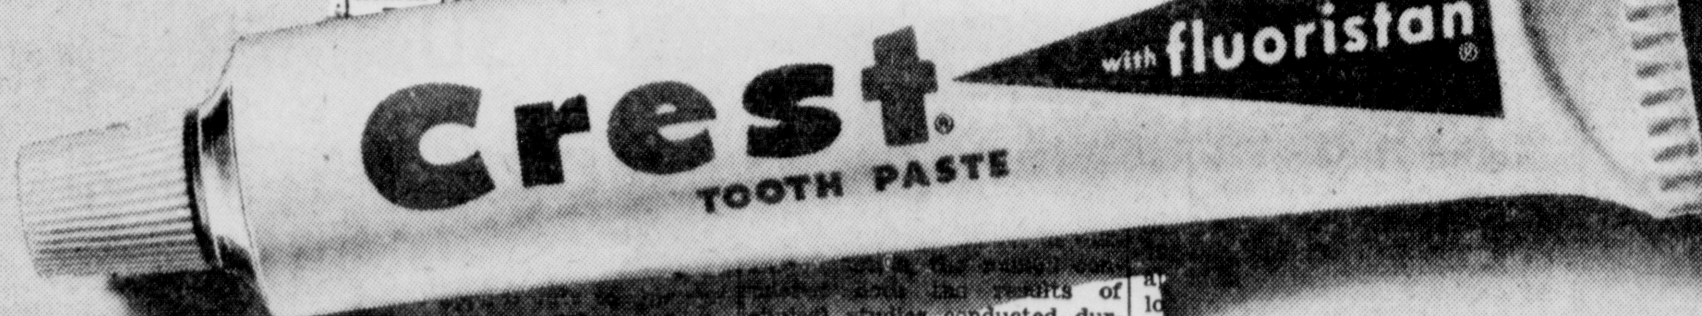

"Crest has been shown to be an effective anticaries (decay preventive) dentifrice that can be of significant value when used in a conscientiously applied program of oral hygiene and regular professional care; Crest dentifrice may also be of value as a supplement to public health procedures."

"The stannous fluoride dentifrice is an aid to combating dental decay; it is not a cure-all. Nor will it substitute for fluoridation of community water supplies. Fluoridation, which is supported by exhaustive long - term studies, remains by far the most effective means for obtaining the benefits of fluorides.

"We hope that additional studies will further clarify the role of Crest or other dentifrices in the program of preventing dental decay."

Three elements were involved in the council's decision on safety, the

Crest made news
because it's effective against cavities—
not because it's a cure-all

Other dentifrices evaluated to date by the council is supported by evidence considered adequate to demonstrate substantial effectiveness.

clinical studies conducted during a ten-year period and "the manufacturer's willingness to limit advertising claims to those supported by adequate research."

The more you read the clippings above, the more you realize that now you can do something about tooth decay with a toothpaste.

"Dentifrice found to prevent decay . . . won recognition from the American Dental Association . . . never done before." These are some of the words the nation's press used this month to tell the news of the American Dental Association's recognition of Crest* as effective against cavities.

Effective against cavities but not a cure-all

But, effective as this stannous fluoride toothpaste has proved to be, there's a lot more to good dental health than just squeezing Crest on your toothbrush.

The real key is not the use of Crest alone. But the use of Crest as part of a dental program.

The American Dental Association spelled this out in their official statement: "Crest has been shown to be an effective anti-decay dentifrice that can be of significant value when used in a conscientiously applied program of oral hygiene and regular professional care."

Rules for dental health still apply

And that, of course, means the complete dental program your dentist has always recommended for dental health:

1. You still should brush regularly. After each meal is best.
2. You still should brush right. Away from the gums. And make sure you brush every tooth—especially the back ones.
3. You still should watch those treats between meals. Between-meal treats can be overdone. Be sure to follow your dentist's advice.
4. You still should see your dentist twice a year. Give him a chance to spot trouble early and stop it before it gets headway.

Don't expect miracles—do expect fewer cavities

As the American Dental Association says, "Crest has been shown to be effective" (when you use it right and use it regularly). So team it up with the right kind of dental program and start reducing your family's cavities now.

Why is Crest different from other toothpastes?

The answer is simple. The thing that makes Crest different is Fluoristan*—an exclusive stannous fluoride formula.

Stannous fluoride, you know, is a decay-fighter dentists themselves use to prevent cavities. With Crest, you put the same fluoride on your teeth at home, too, every time you brush.

The effectiveness of this fluoride in Crest has been proved by years of tests. Tests in which Crest had to prove its superiority over regular toothpaste. And did in test after test.

 Your dealer may be temporarily out of stock in your favorite size. Because the benefits of Crest are so important, we hope you'll take another size until we catch up.

Streamline Routine Aids Normal Weights

A perplexing figure problem is the middle spread — at desirable weight. Why is this such a common dilemma?

It's our mechanical age. As life becomes physically easier we grow muscularly soft. The abdomen is entirely dependent on muscle tone — there is no bony support. As the Ida Jean Kain years go by, if we slip and slump, these middle muscles lose tone.

Is it more difficult for you to pull up or to hold the stomach in? Or both? Your ability to pull slim through the middle depends on the tone in that fine strap of muscle, the rectus abdominis, which runs lengthwise of the figure from ribcage to pelvis. In-pull muscle power is determined by the tone of the oblique muscles which span the side-front of the abdomen.

UNDERNEATH THESE are the transverse muscles which cover the sides of the waistline horizontally. When these last two sets of muscle lose tone, the waistline slips its moorings.

What puts tone in these important muscles?

Exercise and correct posture. Acquire the knack of standing and sitting with the right up-and-in pull. It takes practice to hold the uplift, but it's the best streamliner.

To make good posture a natural, strengthen the girdle muscles with exercise.

Position: Lying on back on floor, knees bent, soles of feet flat on floor. In this position there is no strain. Have arms out at sides on floor at shoulder level, elbows bent, forearms back on floor L-shape.

Movement: Contract strongly with abdominal muscles, pulling snugly up-and-in. Slowly lift hips off floor, one vertebra after another. Continue until back is in straight line from shoulders to knees. Do not arch back. Slowly lower hips to floor, again one vertebra at a time. Continue 8 counts. Do not hold your breath.

To reach side-front muscles, do this conditioner daily.

Position: Lying on back, knees flexed, soles of feet flat on floor. Palm of right hand resting on floor of left hand.

MOVEMENT: With both hands resting on left thighline, raise right shoulder off floor and slide hands toward knee. H-o-l-d... to a slow count of six. Count out loud, do not hold breath. Return to floor. Place hands on right thigh and raise left shoulder. Return. Repeat eight times.

These two exercises help to infuse elasticity into your own muscular girdle. Back this up with on-the-team posture.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I discourage ants from invading my kitchen during the summer months?

A. These pests are not at all fond of the smell of pine. Use one of the popular pine-oil scented cleaners on the market, full strength, for wiping around your sink and windowsills — and you'll have fewer visits by the ants.

Q. How can I freshen my white kid gloves?

A. Slip them on your hands and rub some moist bread crumbs or white cornmeal between the palms and fingers. Polish with a cotton-flannel cloth.

Q. What do you suggest is the easiest method of painting chairs or stools?

A. The generally-approved method is to turn them bottom-side up and paint the legs and rounds first.

Improved Reading Skill Stops School Drop-Outs

Some children of the ninth, tenth or higher grades have decided not to go back to school this fall and their decision may have been silently or verbally approved, alas, by their parents.

The number of these dropouts is much larger than most of us realize. Perhaps the majority of these children have quit because they lagged at school and seek escape from mental work which seems hard to them.

Besides, they may be lured with the hope of earning money in order to have more luxuries and good times.

BUT NOT all youths who drop out of school have failed to get promotion or earned low grades. Among them are some with average, even higher, grades.

Also, a good many of them, in spite of low grades, have high, even excellent, native learning ability. For some reason, they have not caught on well at book-learning.

They are poor readers, as a rule. Naturally, a poor reader is faced with discouragement because most of his lessons require reading, and the higher the grade, the more this is true.

Therefore, most of these youths who want to quit school might be persuaded to go on if ways were found to help them become better readers. Even a few who already have decided to quit school might be won to choose to go on if they felt sure they might learn to read better.

WITH THE help of a skillful tutor or a reading clinic, some of these promising youths might be saved for further education, especially with such help during the next school year.

It's the boy or girl who would rather not return to school but doesn't feel quite sure about it who is the most hopeful prospect. A greatly-admired teacher, neighbor or relative might prove successfully persuasive.

Then if the youth knew the parents won't approve quitting school and have the where-withal to require his return to school, this might assure continuance of attendance.

I'm amazed at the number of parents who write me of a child: "He will return to school if we say he must."

Always I reply, "Why don't you say the precious word then? However, when you do say so, you should neglect no effort to find ways to help him enjoy more success at school."

You can do most to cause your children never to entertain the idea of quitting school, at least before they graduate from high school, if you find ways early in the grades to help them succeed at school.

My bulletins, "Helping Your Child Succeed at School" and "Home Helps for Poor Readers, I and II", may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Kuzma Named Basketball Coach At Midland High School

Will Assume Post Given Up By Hamilton

Henry (Hank) Kuzma, who guided the College of Steubenville to national basketball prominence several seasons ago, is the new head basketball coach of Midland High School.

200 Tickets On Sale For Potters-Massillon

The Nonpareil Club is selling 200 tickets for the East Liverpool-Massillon football game. Persons wishing tickets may contact J. Allen Montgomery, 661 Walnut St.

Board of Education in a special session Wednesday night.

Kuzma succeeds George Hamilton, who gave Midland some of its greatest teams while winning five Section 8 championships in the space of eight years.

Kuzma, 33, comes to Midland after a year at Canon McMillan High School near Canonsburg, Pa. Prior to the Canonsburg post, he fulfilled one year of a three-year contract as head cage coach at Loyola of the South at New Orleans.

In four years as coach of the College of Steubenville, Kuzma compiled an outstanding won-lost record of 95-19. His 1958 team went undefeated with 23 straight victories.

He produced two of the greatest small college basketball players in the country in Big Jim Smith and Paul Brownlee, both Little All-America selections.

Kuzma also has coached at George Junior Republic School at Grove City, Pa. He performed for Duquesne under Duddy Moore and Chick Davies. He is a native of Steelton, Pa., and led Steelton High to its first championship in 16 years while playing in high school ranks.

The new Leopard mentor is married and has two sons. He will inherit several veterans from Midland's 23-3 squad of last year, including Carl Anderson, already tabbed as a sure shot for All-Pennsylvania honors.

Kuzma's salary at Midland will be $6,800 a year. He will teach social studies.

Labine Sparkles As Bucs Beat 'Em

By ED WILKS Associated Press Sports Writer

Clem Labine has bounced back to the National League with a flourish for Pittsburgh's first place Pirates - and he did it against the Philadelphia Phillies, one of the clubs that "read" him out of business.

It was after Los Angeles traded him to Detroit of the American League in mid-June that the one-time Dodger bullpen ace learned some NL clubs were reading his pitches - getting tip-offs on what he was about to throw from the way he held the ball. Labine got wind of it from Al Dark, then playing for the Phils and now with Milwaukee, after Clem left the league.

Wednesday night, he came back, stepping in on a sixth-inning rally by the Phils and saving a 5-3 victory for the Pirates with 3 2-3 innings of hitless relief.

That kept the Bucs 7½ games ahead of the second place Milwaukee Braves, who trimmed Cincinnati 11-4. San Francisco sent third place St. Louis skidding to a sixth straight loss, 6-5. The Chicago Cubs beat Los Angeles 1-0.

In the American League, New York scored an unearned run in the 10th inning for a 3-2 victory over Boston and a 1½-game lead over second place Chicago. The White Sox lost 3-2 at Cleveland. Washington rapped Baltimore 11-7.

Labine, Pirates' Newest Star In Relief, Jubilant

By GIB STALEY PITTSBURGH (AP) - "Just think-a couple of days ago I was ready to quit baseball for good and now I'm with a team that may win the pennant."

Clem Labine, veteran right-handed pitcher, after starring in the Pittsburgh Pirates' 5-3 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies, made that statement Wednesday night in the dressing room.

Manager Danny Murtagh was one of the first to congratulate Labine for preserving the Pirate victory and keeping the Bucs' first-place margin at 7½ games ahead of second place Milwaukee.

"That was some performance," Murtagh said. "If Labine can keep up that sort of pitching he will be a real help."

Labine, 34, signed as a free agent only Tuesday, pitched 3 2-3 innings of hitless relief ball and struck out six. He walked three.

The Pirates were leading 4-2 and two Phillies were on base with one out when Labine took over for starter and winner Harvey Haddix in the sixth. Labine walked the first man he faced. The Phils scored their final run of the night on a fielder's choice.

Labine then walked another man and had the crowd uneasy before he struck out pinch hitter Tony Curry.

Labine was released by Detroit two weeks ago and signed by Buc General Manager Joe Brown. "Boy, I thought I was washed up until Brown called," Labine said. "I turned down a couple of chances to go to a minor league club and had no idea Joe Brown or anyone in the majors wanted me as I didn't do well at Detroit and wasn't so hot at Los Angeles earlier in the season."

in 12 innings. Detroit beat Kansas City 5-2.

Labine was signed as a free agent by the Pirates Tuesday. Trying a new pitch, "a short curve," the hefty right-hander struck out six, fanning pinch-hitter Tony Curry with the bases loaded and two runs home in the sixth after the Phils had chased him off.

Harvey Haddix (8-7) and trimmed the Bucs' lead to 4-3. Milwaukee walloped the Reds with two scoring bursts, putting across five runs in the first inning and six in the eighth, when Hank Aaron walloped his 32nd home run, with a man on, and Ed Mathews lined a two-run double. Six singles, a walk and an error took care of things in the first inning against Jim O'Toole (10-11). Reliever Joey Jay (4-6) was the winner.

Rookie Sherman Jones, second of three Giant pitchers, singled home the deciding run in the fifth inning for his first major league victory. Johnny Antonelli saved it.

Felipe Alou socked a three-run homer off loser Ray Sadecki (6-7) as the Giants swept the three-game set. Walt Moryn and Daryl Spencer homered for the Cards.

Ernie Banks' 34th home run won it in the ninth for the Cubs, who had been blanked on three singles by loser Don Drysdale (10-13). Glen Hobbie (11-16) was the winning pitcher.

Elorde Wins, Retains Title

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Some fight fans might contend Junior Lightweight Champion Flash Elorde isn't much of a slugger. Don't try that line on Harold Gomes.

The 25-year-old Filipino southpaw knocked out Gomes in 1:20 of the first round Wednesday night in their scheduled 15-round nationally televised title fight.

It was quicker, neater and much more impressive than March 16 when Flash won the 130-pound title from Gomes on a knockout in the seventh. On that occasion Gomes hit the canvas eight times.

Wednesday night it was twice. Elorde, 130, caught the providence, R.I., challenger, also 130, with what the champ called "a lucky left" that sent Gomes down for a seven count.

"I knew he would get up, just like in Manila," Elorde said later. When Gomes did get up, the champ closed with a smashing combination of rights and lefts that ended the fight before many of the 2,279 spectators had settled in their Civic Auditorium seats.

For Elorde, it was the third knockout in a row and his 22nd in 72 fights—not a particularly impressive knockout record.

Elorde's manager, Lope Sarreal, said he is attempting to set up a title fight with Lightweight Champion Joe Brown. He said he talked with Brown's manager and guaranteed $60,000 for the fight, but added he is a little doubtful that Brown will agree to battle Elorde.

Elorde's next match will be a defense of his Orient lightweight title in Manila if Kazuo Takayama wins his fight Aug. 29 with Featherweight Champion Davy Moore.

If Moore wins, then arrangements have been made for a non-title fight in Manila.

New 'Rope' Trick May Work Out For U.S. Boxers

ROME (AP)—A new "rope" trick may work for Uncle Sam's boxers in the Olympic games.

Most experts have brushed off U.S. ring chances in the games, Aug. 25-Sept. 5. But Coach Julius Menendez has devised a method he hopes will cut down American clinching and spur them to the type of boxing pleasing to the unpredictable Olympic ring officials.

Menendez strings a rope across each corner of the practice ring and has two battlers in each corner, one on either side of the rope.

Thus, when the sparring starts, the boys must fight over the rope which prevents clinching and wrestling. It also involves fancy stepping by the boy within the roped triangle.

"The most costly mistake you can make in Olympic boxing is to clinch," said Menendez, San Jose State boxing coach. "The officials warn you twice and the third time you clinch, you get thrown out of the ring."

Unearned Runs Loosen Knot

Yanks Win To Lead By 1½ As Chisox, Orioles Lose

By ED WILKS Associated Press Sports Writer

Three unearned runs have jarred loose the three-way knot for the American League lead.

An unearned run in the 10th inning brought the New York Yankees a 3-2 victory at Boston Wednesday night. That gave the Yankees a 1½-game edge over the second place Chicago White Sox, who lost 3-2 at Cleveland on an unearned run.

And the third place Baltimore Orioles, carried into extra innings because of an unearned Washington run, dropped their fourth in a row, 11-7 in 12 innings, and fell 2½ games back. It was the Senators' fifth in a row over the Orioles, who have lost nine of 14 to Washington.

Detroit defeated Kansas City 5-2 in the other AL game.

In the National League, Pittsburgh stayed 7½ games out front with a 5-3 victory over Philadelphia while second place Milwaukee clobbered Cincinnati 11-4. Third place St. Louis lost 6-5 to San Francisco. The Chicago Cubs beat Los Angeles 1-0.

A walk, Tony Kubek's single and a wild throw by second baseman Pete Runnels gave the Yankees their third straight victory. Bobby Shantz (4-3) was the winner in relief, Mike Fornieles (7-3) was the loser in relief.

The Indians handed White Sox relief ace Gerry Staley his sixth defeat after tying the game with two runs in the seventh. It was only the fourth loss in 13 games for the White Sox, who were shut out over the last five innings by Jim Perry and winning reliever Johnny Klippstein (4-5).

The Orioles ripped five home runs—all solo shots by Jackie Brandt, Al Pilarcik, Ron Hansen, Jim Gentile and Gus Triandos—and socked four doubles, but a six-run seventh inning, with one run unearned, gave the Senators a 7-7 tie after nine. Washington then put it away against reliever Wes Stock (2-1) when he walked the bases loaded in the 12th and then gave up two-run singles by pinch-hitter Julio Becquer and Billy Gardner. Tex Clevenger (5-8) was the winning pitcher in relief.

Frank Lary won his 11th for the Tigers with a six-hitter. After the A's scored twice on half of their hits for a 2-all tie in the third, loser Ray Herbert (7-13) hit Charley Maxwell with a pitch in the fifth inning and he scored the winning run on singles by Rocky Colavito and Ossie Virgil.

Olympic Committee Faces Thorny Problem On China

By TED SMITS Associated Press Sports Editor

ROME (AP) - The Olympic games, eight days away from real competition, moved today into the arena of debate and intrigue.

The International Olympic Committee meets Friday to tackle the ever-thorny problem of Nationalist China and find a successor as president to Avery Brundage of Chicago, now apparently not unwilling to be drafted.

The big Finnish and Canadian teams both arrive and the Modern Pentathlon Federation opens sessions, first of the world-wide sports groups to convene.

I.O.C. members huddled through the night in swank hotel rooms and at open air tables on the Via Veneto, Rome's gay white way.

They must decide:

1-Whether to draft Brundage, stern-visaged defender of the amateur code, or choose between Lord David Buryghie who won the 400 meter hurdles in 1928, and an Iron Curtain representative.

2-How to find a name under which to admit Nationalist China to these games.

3-When to start the 1964 games in Tokyo. The Japanese are supposed to favor mid-May. The United States and many European nations consider this too early.

Eighty-seven Soviets came in Wednesday. Among the star squads still not in Rome are the United States track and basketball teams, both barnstorming.

The games open Aug. 25 with nearly 8,000 athletes from 87 nations competing - almost double the entry list of any other games.

Browns Acquire Clarke To Assist Pass Attack

HIRAM, Ohio (AP)—The Cleveland Browns have added a reinforcement for their passing attack with the acquisition Wednesday of Leon Clarke, a 230-pound offensive end, from the Los Angeles Rams in exchange for line-backer Bob Long.

The Browns' first-line receiving strength has appeared adequate with Ray Renfro and Gene Nigler as the flankers and Rich Kreitling in the slot, but there was a dropoff behind that trio.

Clarke, who has fine speed for his size, was with the Rams four seasons. He had an average of 19 yards per pass reception at the end of two seasons, but has been plagued by injuries the last two years. Reports from the Rams' camp indicate he is in top physical shape again.

Long, obtained from the Detroit Lions in a trade for quarterback Jim Ninowski, balked about coming to the Browns, but finally agreed and reported several days after the training camp opened here. His home is in California.

"I'm leaving with mixed emotions," he said Wednesday. "It will be good to play near home and see my family more. Still I've enjoyed it here with the Browns."

Linebacking is one of the strong points of the Browns and for that reason Coach Paul Brown was able to let Long go. Three regulars from last season - Walter Michaels, Galen Fiss and Vince Costello - are back, plus Dave Lloyd, who broke in as a rookie line-backer and center last season.

Clarke probably won't be able to join the Browns in time for their exhibition game against the Pittsburgh Steelers in Pittsburgh tonight.

Killing Redhead, Canvasback Ducks Prohibited In 1960-61

WASHINGTON (AP) - Migratory waterfowl hunting regulations announced today prohibit shooting of redhead and canvasback ducks during the 1960-61 season in this country and also tighten the duck rules for the Pacific Flyway.

Secretary of Interior Fred A. Seaton announced the framework of waterfowl hunting seasons and bag limits within which the states may select hunting dates and fix their own rules.

The outside dates for taking waterfowl and coots, except brant in the Pacific Flyway, will be from Friday, Oct. 7 through Sunday, Jan. 8 1961, both dates inclusive. These are the same as last year. For brant in the Pacific Flyway the outside dates will be Sunday, Nov. 20 through Tuesday, Jan. 31, 1961.

In Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands the outside dates will be from Tuesday, Nov. 1 through Wednesday, Feb. 15, both inclusive.

The length of the duck season and the size of bag and possession limits are both reduced for the Pacific Flyway while they remain generally the same as last year for the Atlantic, Mississippi and Central flyways.

An optional plan on seasons and bag limits is offered for each flyway. These provide for a possible maximum of 50 shooting days for duck and coots in the Atlantic and Mississippi flyways, a possible maximum of 60 days for those species in the Central Flyway, and a possible maximum of 90 days shooting of ducks, coots and gallinules in the Pacific Flyway.

Last year the Pacific Flyway maximum was 94 days.

Basic shooting hours - sunrise to sunset last year, are lengthened one-half hour this year to include the period from one-half hour before sunrise until sunset except on specified season opening dates. On those days, a noon-to-sunset limit applies.

U.S. Olympic Track Team In Switzerland

BERN, Switzerland (AP) - America's Olympic track and field squad—including at least a dozen gold-medal hopefuls—arrives in Switzerland Friday for a final warmup meet before the Rome Olympics.

The American team, studded with world record holders, is certain to swamp the relatively weak opposition from seven other countries. Even Switzerland's best men are absent from the 50-entry field, and only Poland's javelin thrower, Janusz Sidlo, is considered to be in the world's top class.

The American squad arrives in Zurich by charter plane from New York and will travel immediately to Bern for the weekend meet. The squad is scheduled to continue its flight to Rome on Monday.

Cox-Merchants Chalks Up Second Victory In Playoffs, 11-6

Tribe Nips White Sox, Faces Nemesis Pierce

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians have their work cut out for them tonight as they try to sweep a two-game series from the Chicago White Sox.

They will be facing their old nemesis, Billy Pierce, the leading Sox winner at 12 games who has a 4-0 mark against them this season.

Jim Grant (7-5) will open for the Indians.

The Indians broke a 2-2 deadlock with an unearned run in the eighth inning Wednesday night to take a 3-2 decision.

Johnny Klippstein, who pitched the last two innings in relief of starter Jim Perry, was the winner. It was his fourth victory of the season and his third over the White Sox, whom he has held to one run and six hits in 16 innings of relief work.

The winning run scored on a sacrifice fly to center field by Tito Francona. Harvey Kuenn led off with a line drive double to right-center to start the winning rally against Gerry Staley, the Sox reliever, who took the mound duty from starter Bob Shaw with one out in the seventh.

Kuenn moved to third on a sacrifice bunt by Vic Power, who was safe at first when catcher Sherm Lollar fumbled the ball, and then scored on Francona's fly.

Chicago scored two runs in the fourth inning off Perry, who was seeking his 16th victory. With one out, Perry walked Roy Sievers,

Faces Salem In Best-Of-5 Series Final

Cox-Merchants whipped Lawrenceville, 11-6, Wednesday at East Palestine for the second straight time to gain a berth in the City-County League final playoffs.

The East Liverpool entry will meet Salem in a best three-out-five series for the playoff championship. Salem won a second straight over Chippewa via the forfeit route yesterday.

Cox-Merchants behind Jim Miles and reliever Dick Chamberlain, jammed seven runs across in the fourth to wrap up the victory after Lawrenceville had nicked Miles for a run in the first and two in the top of the fourth. Miles received credit for the victory.

Outlit, 8-7, by the losers, Cox-Merchants bunched most of their safeties off Sonny Pugh in the fourth. Lawrenceville pushed over three more tallies in the fifth off Chamberlain, but then was blanked the last two frames by the strong righthander.

Lawrenceville, paced by Vic Reed at the plate who collected three of the loser's eight hits, committed three miscues as did the winners. Hobbs slammed a triple for Lawrenceville.

Cox-Merchants added "frosting to the cake" by scoring twice in the fifth and another pair in the sixth.

Jim Dickey, who fanned 15 and won Tuesday's game, banged out two hits as did Nutt for the winners.

Boy Killed By Car
LORAIN, Ohio (AP) — Darryl Keener, 4, was killed Wednesday when he ran into the side of an automobile being pulled by a tow truck and was thrown under the rear wheels of the car. The child, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Keener of Polk, Ashland County, had been playing with other children in the yard at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. H. D. Bowen at Huntington, just south of Wellington.

The Michigan State wrestling coach, Fendley Collins, and his new assistant, Grady Peninger, were outstanding mat performers as undergraduates at Oklahoma State.

Youth Killed In Crash
WAUSEON, Ohio (AP)—An 18-year-old Philadelphia youth was killed Wednesday when his car crashed into the rear of a tractor-trailer rig on the Ohio Turnpike about eight miles west of Swanton. The victim was Timothy Gallagher, whose father, James, is a former general manager of the Chicago Cubs baseball team, and is now associated with the Philadelphia Phils system.

Horse trainer Robert A. (Whistling Bob) Smith, who died in 1943 at the age of 73, also dabbled in boxing. He was the manager of Lightweight Frank Erne.

Stranahan's 273 Wins Ohio Open

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Toledo's Frank Stranahan, his game honed razor sharp by professional tour competition, wore Ohio's Open Golf crown today.

The spark plug millionaire fired a 273 over Snyder Park Golf Club's 6,052-yard course, 11 under par for the 37th tournament, completed Wednesday, to triumph by two strokes over a red-hot field.

Stranahan won the same event in 1948 as an amateur and is the only player ever to triumph both as a professional and as a simon-pure.

A scoring error in which Stranahan figured marred his conquest to some extent but in the final analysis the mistake made little difference. In the third round Stranahan was acting as scorer for his playing partner, Joe Dodich of Newark, who led the first two rounds. Dodich still topped the third round by a single stroke as the scores were posted, but a transposition in hole scores, made inadvertently by Stranahan on Dodich's card, cost the Newark player a two-stroke penalty.

Dodich's soared to a 75 in the final round for a 280 total to wind up in a sixth place tie as Stranahan carded his second straight 68 to pick up the $800 first prize of the record 4,000 purse.

As he completed his final round, Stranahan declined to wait for the trophy presentation. He handed his caddy a $100 fee, asked tournament officials to mail his check and trophy and headed for the St. Paul, Minn. Open.

Two assistant professionals, Ab Justice of Warren and Earl Puckett of Barberton, chased Stranahan to the wire. They wound up tied for second with 275 as Justice scored a closing 67 and Puckett a 70. Puckett was the only player in the field to better par on all four rounds. He and Justice received $475 each for their efforts.

Frank Beley of Canton, who fired 66-69-69 to lead after three rounds, jumped to a 72 and fourth place at 276.

A dozen of the professionals finished under par for the 72-hole jaunt and the prize money was spread through the top 20 places.

A five-place tie for the final $20 award gave each of the quintet a $4 payoff for the three days' play.

The amateur honors were split by two Columbus youths, Dave Daniels, two-time state public links champion, and Mike Podolski, second placer in the last two public links tournaments. They wound up with 284—even par—to defeat their closest foes by six strokes.

Lee Raymond of Toledo, the defending champion who played the first three rounds one under par, withdrew as he jumped six strokes over par on the first five holes of the final round.

The top finishers:

Frank Stranahan, Toledo, 66-71-68-68-273 ($800)
Ab Justice, Warren, 68-67-73-67-275 ($475)
Earl Puckett, Barberton, 68-68-72-276 ($250)

Bob Benning, Dayton, 68-70-72-69-279 ($150)
Joe Dodich, Newark, 65-68-72-75-280 ($116.67)

Richard Haire, Dayton, 67-71-69-73-282 ($116.67)
Gordon K. Waldespuhl, Dayton, 69-71-73-67-280 ($116.67)

Bill Collins, Columbus, 69-74-70-68-282 ($75)

Joe Kotlarczyk, Fremont, 70-74-70-68-282 ($75)

Russ Milne, Toledo, 68-73-73-69-283 ($75)

Robert Littler Jr. of Athens shot 72-74-73-76-295, twelfth best amateur score, to win $40 in merchandise.

A team of Dr. J. J. Laneve, Art Lynch, W. A. Porter and Bill Mayers walked off with first place in the Amateur-Amateur tournament Wednesday at the East Liverpool Country Club.

The quartet's card for the event, played under best-ball with one-half of individual handicap, showed a 29-31-60.

Finishing third were Don Burbeck, Jim Laughlin, Russ Smith and Dr. A. A. Turner who fired a 32-33-65.

Sixty-four golfers participated in the annual event.

Herter To Add U.S. Weight Behind Venezuelan Proposal
SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP)—Secretary of State Christian A. Herter was expected to throw the weight of the United States today behind a Venezuelan move to condemn the Dominican Republic for aggression.

But Herter may caution the other foreign ministers of the Organization of American States (OAS) against the total quarantine of the Dominican dictatorship asked by Venezuela.

With a private meeting scheduled this morning, Herter was to be the first speaker of the afternoon. The foreign ministers were embarked on a crucial phase of their two-day-old meeting, judging Venezuela's charge that Dominican officials connived in the attempt to assassinate Venezuelan President Romulo Betancourt.

Venezuelan Foreign Minister Ignacio Luis Arcaya called Wednesday for a virtual quarantine of the Dominican Republic after noting that the special OAS investigating committee had accused Dominican officials of backing the abortive June 24 plot against Betancourt.

Arcaya asked for a breakoff in diplomatic relations and communications with the Dominican Republic as well as economic sanctions. But he also appeared to leave the door open for lesser measures, saying the ministers had come to San Jose to choose the measures they wish to apply.

Dominican Foreign Minister Porfirio Herrera Baez in a three-hour reply challenged the legality of the OAS committee's report. He declared there was no proof to support Venezuela's charge. Testimony, he said, came from prisoners now held in Venezuela and their statements would not be admissible in many courts. He also hinted the prisoners had been brainwashed by Venezuelan police and likened the case to that of U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers, now on trial in Moscow.

West Virginia Towns Pay More For Police, Welfare

MORGANTOWN (AP) — How do West Virginia's cities and towns spend their money?

For general government: streets and sewers; police and fire protection—and for garbage collection.

Among county governments, the biggest expenditure increases between 1940 and 1960 were for recreation, libraries and fire protection.

In terms of dollars, the counties put more into police protection; health and hospitals, and public welfare, over the past 20 years. A new review of municipal and county budgets by West Virginia University's Bureau for Government Research showed that outlays by cities and towns for garbage collection increased almost 100 per cent from 1952 to 1960.

And the municipalities likewise have been putting out more for recreation. Such expenditures rose 131 per cent from 1952 to 1960 to a total of more than a million dollars a year.

The study found that municipal general revenue estimates in the state for the fiscal year ended last June 30, including balances on hand, amounted to $26.1 million.

That represented an increase of 9.4 per cent over 1958-59. The percentage distribution of the total estimated revenue for all West Virginia cities and towns looked like this:

Property tax, 28.7; gross sales tax, 27.4; garbage collection fees, 8.6; parking meter revenue, 6.2; fines, 4.4, and all other sources, 24.7 per cent.

One of the striking changes in recent years in the municipal revenue structure has been a shift from a heavy reliance on property taxes to business taxes and service fees—particularly in the larger cities.

On the other hand, the state's 55 counties derived more than 88 per cent of their revenue for the past fiscal year from property taxes. On a nationwide basis, such a source is providing about 45 per cent of what it is here.

Earnings of county officials—in other words, fees for services rendered—accounted for 5.1 per cent of county income, and 6.8 per cent of the total income for current purposes came from such miscellaneous sources as rents and concessions; and earnings of airports and hospitals.

The public welfare function accounted for 16.3 per cent of budgets of all counties in 1940, and more money than was spent for that purpose than for any other.

But by 1952, public welfare had been replaced by police protection (sheriff, probation and parole), which retained the top spot in fiscal 1960 at 16.4 per cent. Public welfare was off to 11.6 per cent.

Health and hospitals, which accounted for only 4.2 per cent of budgets in fiscal 1940, had climbed to third place by the past fiscal year and were requiring 9 per cent of the expenditures.

In 1952, county governments in the state spent $13,583,000. By the past fiscal year, expenditures had climbed to $19,960,000.

About $612,000 of the $6,377,000 increase could be attributed to a cost of living boost, the survey observed, "but approximately $5,765,000 is attributable to additional or expanded governmental activities."

New Constitution Set For Firemen

A new constitution was adopted by the Columbiana County Firemen's Association at a meeting attended by 40 in Lisbon Wednesday night.

By-laws and election of an executive board are planned at the next meeting Sept. 21 at Home-worth, Fire Chief Robert Lewis of Wellsville, president, said.

Plans were made for a burning of a building at Guilford Sept. 4 at 1 p. m. as a practice training session. Any fire department may attend.

State Highway Patrolman Walter Jones screened a film on traffic fatalities. The Lisbon firemen served coffee and doughnuts.

Killed In Fall

CINCINNATI (AP) — A 63-year-old delivery man, Omar Rankin, died Wednesday night of a skull fracture suffered when he tumbled down a flight of stairs at a pharmacy in suburban Cleves.

The state of Arizona has voted for the winner in every presidential election since its admission into the union in 1912.

East Ohio Gas Employees Set Vote On Pact

CLEVELAND (AP)—East Ohio Gas Co.'s 2,800 employees represented by the Natural Gas Workers, an independent union, will vote Saturday on an agreement to end a strike called Aug. 8.

Robert W. Ramsdell, president of the utility which serves 800,000 customers in 180 northeastern Ohio communities, called the proposed new contract a "fair and equitable settlement" and praised workers for their conduct during the strike.

The basis of settlement was not disclosed by either company or union at the time agreement was reached late Wednesday in the office of Federal Mediator Gilbert J. Seldin.

The terms, however, will be outlined to the employees in leaflets distributed by the union Friday afternoon when they report at work stations to collect pre-strike pay.

During the strike about 800 supervisory employees maintained service, but installation of gas in new homes and buildings has been held up.

U.S. Goes On The 'Hate' List As Reds Set Minds Of Young

HONG KONG (AP) — The Chinese Communists start molding the minds of children soon after birth.

Their aim, they say, is practical as well as ideological.

Minister of Public Health Li Te-Chuan said recently:

"The education and care of children is for the purpose of serving production. . . (it) releases the great potential labor power of women and enables them to take part in production."

A recent Peiping dispatch by the official New China News Agency said "tens of millions of children are entered in breast-feeding rooms, nurseries and kindergartens."

As a result, it said, "children begin to receive Socialist and Communist education from childhood."

A joint announcement from the Ministries of Public Health and education last month called for a nationwide educational program to teach children to love the Communist party Boss Mao Tse-Tung, socialism, labor and the people's communes and to hate the United States.

Minister Li said children in nurseries and kindergartens should "perform labor within their capabilities" but in the case of very young children, she said, "this labor should be tempered with ease."

The joint announcement said children "should be taught to understand the happy life of children in Socialist (Communist) countries and the bitter lot of children of working people in the capitalist countries and those in colonial and semi-colonial countries."

It said children should be especially taught that U. S. imperialism is the fiercest enemy of the people of the world.

At last report, some 50 million children in Red China's rural areas were in nurseries and kindergartens.

A recent Western visitor to Communist China said he was shocked at the pattern and scope of Communist education.

"You see nurseries and primary and secondary schools everywhere you go," he said, "and the products of this system that I met showed how twisted and incomplete their education was."

Mrs. Robert Perkins of Irondale is a patient at Mercy Hospital in Pittsburgh.

Elmer Golden of Irondale is a patient at the Ohio Valley Hospital at Steubenville.

Jacob Davis, 333½ Commerce St., Wellsville, is a patient in City Hospital.

Miss Betty Stiteler, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Stiteler of St. Clair Ave. Ext., underwent surgery Wednesday at City Hospital.

Truck Suffers Damage

After Vandals' Prank

Some $350 damage was caused to a pump when vandals, apparently youngsters, placed rocks in a truck loaded with molasses, police were told Wednesday.

George Guidoo, 164 Montana Ave., Chester, driver for the National Molasses Co. of the River Rd., told officers last night the 2½-inch pump blew up while he was unloading at Cochran, Pa.

Guidoo said the rocks apparently were placed in the truck while it was parked on E. 2nd St. over the weekend. When the molasses was being pumped out, the rocks went through the pump and caused it to blow up.

Because the pump works off the universal joint on the tractor, the joint also was damaged, Guidoo told officers.

Year-Around Traffic Safety Program Urged

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Conducting intensified traffic safety campaigns during holiday periods, then relaxing, won't solve Ohio's death and injury problems, Highway Safety Director J. Grant Keys says.

Keys is suggesting a year-around program on a seasonal basis—for the summer holidays, the ice-snow-sleet weather of fall and winter, and in spring, when wet weather is a hazard.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: People say if you have a husband who doesn't drink or gamble or chase women, you're lucky.

My husband doesn't do any of these things. He also doesn't read a darned thing, he doesn't care for movies, music or plays. He has no hobbies, isn't interested in sports and doesn't care for people.

I think he's a dull jerk and I don't feel lucky at all. Can it be that something is wrong with me? I would appreciate a candid answer.—FILLED WITH DOUBT.

Dear Doubtful: A man doesn't become a dull jerk overnight. What did you two have in common when you married him? If you'll give me a candid answer, I can work from there.

Advice Well Taken

Dear Ann: I was delighted that you had the courage to air in your column a delicate problem that many office workers run from because they don't know how to handle it.

I am speaking of the sloppy female who ignores the basic rules of hygiene, such as washing with soap and water, using a toothbrush, comb and changing her clothes regularly.

Your suggestion that "the most gentle and mature woman in the office tell her" is unrealistic. This type never can bring herself to do the job.

In our own office, the most mature and gentle woman refused flatly. She said, "I'd rather die than face her with the facts." So-o-o, it was left to me, a temporary worker, with no seniority, no record for tact and nothing to lose.

I explained to the girl as gently as I could that I was speaking for the entire office. She was visibly shaken, on the brink of tears, and could only reply, "NOBODY ever told me."

I had a difficult time looking at her for a few days but when I finally did, I noticed she had improved her appearance 100 per cent. Although she never came out and said it, her eyes told me that she was enormously grateful.—THE OFFICE PATSY.

Dear Anti: Neither the "swell guy" nor his big-eyed wife sound as if they are brimming over with intelligence. The father probably would be easier to reach, however.

Suggest he go to school in the fall and talk with the principal. This man needs to get some insight into what is happening in his family. His wife sounds incapable of handling the kids alone and the principal may suggest that Pop stay in town even if it means less pay.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hopeless Parents

Dear Ann: If you want to tell me to mind my own business—go ahead. Others have.

My husband's brother is a swell guy who travels five days a week. His wife is one of those big-eyed, helpless types. They have three children under 9 years of age. The kids have had no consistent discipline and are totally uncivilized. No one can stand them.

When they misbehave their mother says, "Wait till your Dad comes home, you'll get it." Then she writes down everything they do and presents the list to Dad on Friday as soon as he walks through the door. The first thing

New Agency To Map Master Plan In Case Of Nuclear War

By C. YATES MCDANIEL
WASHINGTON (AP) — A new central agency will draw up a strategic war master plan stating which U.S. weapons will be used to hit specific targets behind the Iron Curtain if nuclear war should come.

Secretary of Defense Thomas S. Gates Jr. Wednesday named Gen. Thomas S. Power director of the planning agency to be located at Omaha in conjunction with the Strategic Air Command headquarters. Power will continue to serve as SAC commander and will have an admiral as a deputy for the new agency.

A staff of about 40 top specialists will develop a long-range target program that will be under constant review. The plan is expected to be ready by December for approval of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

In announcing the new agency, Gates emphasized that the current strategic target plan is a good one. But he noted it is based largely on SAC's manned bomber force capabilities.

Formation of the new agency is expected to quell a long-smoldering argument between the Air Force and the Navy. Some Air Force quarters have been advocating a separate and over-all strategic command to control long-range weapons of all the services. The Navy opposed this concept.

More Action In Congress

Democrat Aim

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic leaders struggled today against Republican dissent and defections in their own ranks in their efforts to write a legislative record they hope will attract votes.

Party leaders, obviously irked by the slow pace, took steps to speed action in a Congress session they apparently think is making them look bad politically.

In the Senate these took the form of a quiet movement to cut down on the talk and get more votes on a pending bill to increase the minimum wage from $1 to $1.25 an hour.

In the House, Democratic leaders tried for a fourth day to get a quorum so they could continue futile daily sessions. They missed by three votes Wednesday getting half of the membership to answer the roll call.

Actually, members had been told there would be no business this week and they could stay away until next Monday. But with Democrats making up two-thirds of the membership and the heavy absenteeism pointed up by daily quorum calls, the situation could be misunderstood by the folks back home.

A movement also was reported under way to jar loose from the House Rules Committee varying Senate and House versions of school construction bills. The committee also is holding up a housing bill.

In both houses leaders have to contend with Democrats who either openly or privately oppose party platform declarations.

In the senate, Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the party vice presidential nominee, had to engineer the death of a civil rights bill because Southern Democrats would have tied up all business with a filibuster.

Because six Democrats joined six Republicans on the Senate Finance Committee to approve a federal-state matching system, Sen. John F. Kennedy, the presidential nominee, now faces a fight to get a measure for medical care for the elderly that will jibe with his platform.

This won't be easy, because there is substantial Democratic as well as Republican opposition to financing such a program through social security taxes, as Kennedy proposed.

President Eisenhower denounced this as "compulsory medicine" at his news conference Wednesday.

Eisenhower said also he couldn't see any reason why there couldn't be a lot of action on the 21-point legislative program he proposed to the Democratic Congress on its return from the party conventions.

He said it had passed 436 bills in two weeks last year.

South Side's School Books Audit Begins

The audit of books of the Southern Beaver County Joint School District began Wednesday evening at South Side High School near Hookstown by three auditors appointed by the individual districts. Auditors include Frank Moore of Greene Township, Annabelle Swearingen of Hanover Township and Faye Sepler of Hookstown. The Board of Education held a special meeting Monday night and rehired Dr. Kenneth M. McPherson of New Brighton as school doctor. Melvin Cook of Aliquippa was hired as a biology and general science teacher. He is a graduate of Geneva College. The board still needs a high school math teacher and a second grade elementary teacher, Victor Thomas, supervising principal, said. The board received notice that two teachers have accepted positions. They are Mrs. Patsy Wiles, a graduate of Clarion State Teachers College, who will be a new

Girls Seeking Romance Win By A Nose In India

NEW DELHI (AP) — An Indian alderman has come to the rescue of some girls who, he said, were being snuffed right out of matrimony. Ganpat Ram Vaid opposed a move to shift a city slaughterhouse to the suburban village of Badli. He pointed out that Badli already has a public dumping ground — a bad smell — and a surplus of unmarried girls. Vaid said the dump, the smell and the lack of bridegrooms were all connected. He claimed that young men who came courting at Badli were likely to be repelled, and demanded: "Must we further reduce the matrimonial prospects of the girls of Badli?" Others members of the Delhi Municipal Committee agreed they shouldn't.

Out Of The Air

By MARIÉ TORRE

Robert Taylor Interviewed

Marie Torre is on vacation. Today Robert Taylor answers questions about TV.

Q. Several years ago you talked about retiring in 1961. Do you intend to keep your word?

A. You know, I'd forgotten that. Several years ago I sure did talk about it — didn't everyone? And look at 'em now! Including me — the TV holdout champ — all of us TV-ing it — and liking it! But I didn't swear to retire, did I? Anyway, I'm too busy to think about it now that 1961 is edging kinda close and we're starting to film our show for the 1960-61 season. So, I'll give you a great big "No" answer to your No. 1 question. (Reminds me: A guy oughta keep his big mouth shut.)

Q. What prompted you to take on a TV series?

A. Like I told you — I bought me a farm. Across the road from Dick Powell's farm. Where we come from new neighbors get called upon — makes 'em feel welcome. Well, the Powells welcomed the Taylors. The Powells of TV — and the Taylors of moon-pictures. Now, ma'am, did Dick Pow ever give you a sales talk? Well, then, you've never had a sales talk, for this is a stubborn man and a man who knows what he's selling, why he's selling it, and what's more — why the one he's selling it to should buy it. I was sold on: I should be in TV. I was sold on: I wanted no part of TV. So I'm in TV. And I'm loving it. I'm right grateful to neighbor Powell — I'm even right grateful to the guys who invented the contraption! So now you know what "prompted" me.

Q. Has it lived up to your expectations in terms of quality?

A. I'm starting my second season with 10 times more enthusiasm than I started the first — thanks to the series' creators and producers, Arnold Laven, Arthur Gardner and Jules Levy, which is about as affirmative an answer as I ever heard of. I have an unqualified respect for the respective and collective ability of this trio — and haven't found anyone in the business who hasn't. The same goes for all concerned with "The Detectives" — from Aba Lastogel of the Morris Agency and Dick Powell of Four Star to every last man on the crew — they're all quality folks and I think it shows in our product — including the sponsors' commercials! From hold out to real convert — that's me, Marie.

Q. Do you contemplate changes in "The Detectives" next year?

A. I expect to star in more of the stories than I did last year — if that's a "change." And we've a new sustaining character — a brash, very young and daring new member of our "team." Mark Goodard has been signed for the role. That's a "change." Then Ursula Thiess makes her TV bow in our first show of the season, at the invitation of Arnold Laven. The show's never had a guest star before — and I've never lived with or dated a guest star before. So is that a "change" or an innovation or just a new adventure for the Taylors?

Q. Is TV success as rewarding (and lucrative) as movie success?

A. It never occurred to me that the differences in the two mediums are as great — and varied — as

New Librarian Named For Vacancy At Lisbon

LISBON — The Board of Trustees of the Lepper Library announced the appointment of Mrs. Helen Heim to succeed Marion J. Burch, who has accepted a librarian's position with the Air Force at Caribou, Maine. He has been librarian the past year.

Mrs. Heim, of Lisbon R. D. 5, is a 1959 graduate of Geneva College and taught two years at Beaver Local School and four years at Leetonia School. She also attended Mt. Union College in Alliance before graduating from Geneva.

She will assume her new position Sept. 1, as Burch will leave Aug. 31.

Owner To Get Notice To Raze Old Building

Wellsville Council Tuesday night decided to give the owner of the abandoned Whitacre Apartment building 10 days in which to complete razing of the brick structure on 3rd St.

Pointing out that the partially-razed building is "obstructing traffic and is a hazard to safety," Council directed Solicitor William Bush to write Basil Mangano of East Liverpool, the owner, notifying him that "he should abate the nuisance within 10 days."

City ordinance requires that such a nuisance must be eliminated for safety reasons, Council pointed out. A severe windstorm last month blew over part of the building onto electric lines and cut power in the city for several hours.

In other business, Council discussed complaints of weeks growing on both city and private property and reports of speeders on streets of the south section.

Councilman William Strobel reported hazards of an eight-foot deep pit and part of a brick wall near the flood wall in the East End and a retaining wall on Highland Ave.

Safety-Service Director William S. Robinson said the pit will be filled in but there are no funds available to eliminate the other hazards.

Strobel also reported that weeds obstruct the view of motorists driving from Highland Ave. into Wells Ave. He added that weeds also should be cut on the Stevenson Foundry property and along the Pennsylvania Railroad property on Lisbon St.

Robinson said he would order the Stevenson Co. to cut the weeds and added that a work crew will cut weeds on the railroad's property soon.

Speeding of motorists on Clark Ave. from 17th to 21st Sts. was discussed at length. Strobel suggested that Council designate the area as a "No Passing Zone" and this was favored by a 6-1 vote.

Councilman Wilmer Ralston recently installed traffic lights are of no benefit in slowing down traffic as the lights flash only red and green without a yellow caution light.

Councilman Aguin Bowling was directed to contact residents of Shingler's Alley between 4th and 5th Sts., from Main to Broadway, to see if they are willing to share in the cost of resurfacing.

The approximate cost will be about $800, Robinson told Council.

Councilman Robert Taggart said a traffic hazard exists at 18th St. and Clark Ave. and voiced the opinion that a yellow line should be painted to aid motorists making both right and left turns off the one-way street.

At the suggestion of Councilman Don Miller, the sewage Commission was authorized to retire 3 sewage bonds in the amount of $1,000 each and transfer the money to the sewage disposal construction fund. The city's obligation is $3,000 but the treasury balance is only $256.

Council deferred a decision on a request of the Potters Bank & Trust Co. to break 20 feet of curb for parking employees' cars along Riverside Ave.

Speaking from the audience, Ed Pugh denounced the practice of placing political posters and other signs on utility poles. Council said the ordinance prohibiting this will be enforced.

Council granted permission to Ralph Welch, 600 Broadway, to cut curb at his home with the agreement that the safety-service director will supervise the project. Welch told Council he is building a garage.

Another Federal-State School Integration Showdown Looms

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—A new federal-state school integration showdown loomed here today in the wake of Gov. Jimmie H. Davis' take-over of New Orleans public schools.

Davis acted Wednesday to supersede the Orleans Parish (County) school board under a 1960 legislative law permitting him to take over schools to prevent racial integration.

U.S. Dist. Judge J. Skelly Wright has ordered the first grade of New Orleans public schools integrated at the start of the fall term next month.

A three-judge federal court meets Aug. 26 to hear a suit by 31 white parents and the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People for an injunction to prevent Davis from interfering with integration.

Issuance of the injunction would strike at the constitutionality of the law under which Davis acted.

It would also cancel an earlier order by State Dist. Court Judge Oliver B. Carriere ordering the Orleans Parish school board not to comply with Judge Wright's desegregation order. Carriere thus upheld the validity of a state law giving the legislature sole power to reclassify schools as white or Negro.

Davis' action gives him control of the schools pending a meeting of the recently organized four-man legislative committee to reclassify them.

A special legislative session to ratify classification may be necessary, unless the courts void the governor's action.

Angry People Outside Jail

Man Held Under Heavy Guard After Slaying Girl

BOONVILLE, Ind. (AP) — A convicted rapist accused of killing 11-year-old Avril (Honey) Terry was held under close guard today after an angry crowd of townspeople gathered outside the jail.

Emmett O. Hashfield, 53-year-old trinket maker, was ordered held without bail Wednesday on a preliminary charge of first-degree murder after the little girl's dismembered body was found.

Sheriff Robert E. Shelton and State Police Sgt. Wendolin Opel said Hashfield orally admitted dumping Avril's dismembered body on the Ohio River bank and in the river, 25 miles southeast of Boonville.

The little girl disappeared Tuesday on a trip downtown to buy candles for a birthday cake for her 8-year-old sister, Candace. Hashfield was arrested Tuesday night and at first denied any knowledge of the case.

His statement and discovery of the body came Wednesday.

Sheriff Shelton said a crowd of about 200 persons gathered outside the Warrick County Jail Wednesday night.

"They want a quick trial, and they had a tree picked out across the street they wanted to use," Shelton said. He said that he saw no ropes but that several tomatoes were thrown at his deputies, two of them scoring hits.

Hashfield wore overall pants and a blue shirt in his court appearance. He had a black eye, and police said it was the result of a blow from Avril's father, Dr. Robert H. Terry, who had been allowed to question the man.

Police said Hashfield reported meeting the girl when he stopped to help her pick up some pennies she had dropped on the sidewalk. He said she accepted a ride in his car — something her parents had warned her not to do.

Exchange Of Greetings Blamed In Car Wreck

A friendly greeting was blamed for a minor mishap early Tuesday night, police reported.

Richard Lamborn, 1111 Vine St., told police he had stopped behind a car operated by Joseph Lomardo of Steubenville and turned to speak to a friend and his truck drifted into the rear of the 1960 sedan, damaging the rear bumper.

The accident was timed at 7:46 p. m. at W. 8th St. and Dresden Ave.

Earl H. Fuller, 69, of 1664 Etruria St., told police he misjudged clearance when pulling from a parking space on E. 5th St. and struck the parked 1957 convertible of Robert McIntosh of Glenmoor Tuesday night at 6:15.
